 You're Being Cheated by this world's decreasing standards. It's just getting worse and worse

People do not want to work now. Finding someone who does is like finding a bar of gold in giant a pile of crap. You've got to dig through a bunch of turds to find one.

Instead of digging through and finding a bunch of turds.

Man Hands Are Gone!

The days of men walking around with calloused hands from hard-skilled labor are over, and the same can be said about America's contractors.

Have you ever hired a local contractor in hopes of providing you with ACTUAL results?

Instead... you waste your hard earned-cash on sub-average results by what is considered an average contractor these days?

- They don't call.
- They don't text.
- They barely even show up.
- They don't have insurance.

The list goes on & on.

The reality is that you pay for their laziness, leading to even more issues

- You're having arguments with your spouse now because of the stress.
- The project that you paid to be handled now has new issues, leading you down a long and painful journey of stress, paperwork, expenses, and even more risk.

What if the next contractor does the same thing?

More issues?

Exactly!

This has become the standard and it's pathetic.

UNLIKE... “THEM”

“FBHB” is built to detest this new age’s standards of skilled labor. Every single client of ours has never complained about, nor ever needed, a “touch-up.”

Mike Fields, the star of the show, doesn’t just do his job. Unlike other contractors, he is always hands-on. Always communicative. Always does great work.

Stop wasting your time with people who do not care about you, and start getting results from someone who takes pride in their work. Go contact Mike with the number provided in our Facebook Bio.
