

CKWE 103.9 FM Nondagichigan/Radio– The Voice of Kitigan Zibi

For nearly 39 years, CKWE 103.9 FM has proudly served the Algonquin community of Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg, QC and the surrounding regions as a trusted source of information, entertainment, and connection. As the community radio station of Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg, CKWE operates with a dedicated team consisting of one full-time employee, supported part-time staff throughout the year.

CKWE plays an important role in keeping the community informed and engaged by broadcasting local news, community announcements, events, interviews, contests, trivia, bingo, and public service information. The station is also committed to supporting and preserving the Algonquin language through its nightly Algonquin language lessons at 5:30 p.m. and its popular Algonquin Word of the Day (#AWOTD), shared both on-air and across social media platforms. We also have language trivia and share stories and legends in Algonquin over the airwaves.

While country and rock music form the foundation of our programming, CKWE offers a diverse mix of music from every genre and era. Listeners can enjoy everything from timeless classics to today's newest hits, creating a unique listening experience that truly has something for everyone. You never know what you are going to hear next! Programming includes Mixer Monday Music, Two for Tuesdays, Local Musical Legends Past and Present on Friday afternoons showcasing local talent, and much more.

CKWE broadcasts throughout Kitigan Zibi, QC and surrounding communities including Maniwaki, Egan-Sud, Messines, Aumond, Sainte-Thérèse-de-la-Gatineau, Bois-Franc, Blue Sea, Délage, Montcerf-Lytton, and Bouchette.
