Slezak - 3 total (1x Staff, 2x Student)

ID #000: -Administrator Account Detected-

Role*: Staff; Director (Eligible for free time, acts as the end-all be-all moderator for the program)

Name*: Jeremy Slezak

Age: 23

Gender: Male

Talent*: Ultimate Professor

Appearance*: Jeremy is somewhat taller and thinner than average. He has shoulder-length blonde hair and a rather pale, round, clean-shaven face. Rounded-rectangular non-prescription glasses frame his green eyes. His normal outfit consists of a green polo shirt, black pants, and black shoes.

Personality: Jeremy is very polite and kind-hearted, always wanting the best for his students and his friends alike. He tends to be somewhat too trusting of people though, giving him a naive appearance. He will accept excuses from his students without much thought as long as they promise to work hard. He is a very lenient grader, preferring to give students at least partial credit if they seem to be on the right track and have put forth a considerable amount of effort. He's never been in a truly life-or-death situation, so there's no telling how he'd react.

Extra Info/Notes: Jeremy has one younger brother, Jay, who he hasn't seen in several years. The two's paths diverged when Jeremy decided to pursue a career as a teacher. He hoped he could use his status as a lauded professor to have a higher chance of locating Jay or having Jay locate him. "How did Jeremy become the director of a Hope's Peak campus?" you may be asking. Well, after completing his high school term at Hope's Peak, he graduated. He then spent four years attending a very prestigious university. Many semesters, he volunteered as a teaching aide or even taught full classes himself. He graduated magna cum laude. One of the directors of Hope's Peak contacted Jeremy shortly thereafter. They had just opened up a new location with all the latest technology and, because Jeremy is the Ultimate Professor and had just earned his teaching degree, offered him a job there. He convinced them to allow him full administrative control of the campus in exchange for a steady flow of successful students... and no killings.

ID #012:

Role*: Student

Name*: Jay Slezak

Age: 18

Gender: Male

Talent*: Ultimate Wordsmith

Appearance*: Jay is about average height and somewhat underweight. His short, messy dark brown hair makes him look even more diminutive. He has hazel eyes. One of them is smaller than the other and thus constantly looks more closed. The other bears a slightly-misshapen pupil. These deformities indicate that Jay has a severe visual-impairment. A chin-strap beard frames the bottom part of his pale face. His normal outfit consists of a blue polo shirt, black pants, and black shoes. He does have one special outfit made for him by a dear friend which he will dress up in for certain occasions--or when he just wants to show off.

Personality: Jay is very polite and kind, but can get rather emotionally-unstable in stressful situations. He is passionate, is always willing to help others, and very much cares for his friends, which consist of just about everybody he meets. When I say he cares, he cares. He doesn't like to hold grudges and is quick to forgive those who transgress against him. His biggest weakness is that he is trusting and naïve to a fault and will believe almost anything anyone says until he finds evidence against it. Watch out though. Cross him or one of his friends and he will deliver a speech so sharp it could cut you... but then immediately apologize afterwards, unless you keep pushing him. As a Wordsmith, he loves to explain things and, thanks to his brother Jeremy's direction, he has an innate desire to learn as much as he can. His biggest quirk is that he likes to have conversations with his "narrator" at times, and believes he is not the only one of his kind; that more of him exist somewhere "out there," wherever that may be.

Extra Info/Notes: Jay has been on his own ever since his brother Jeremy left to pursue his dream to become a world-famous teacher. Before that, Jay was a rather rambunctious kid who always enjoyed running around pretending to hunt for ghosts. He was always fascinated by paranormal happenings, believing that spirits remained on the material plane for one reason or another. One of his life goals was to figure out why one of those spirits was stuck behind and help them find a way to move on. One particularly fateful day, Jay finally had the chance to fulfill that dream. Oh, what an experience that was; one which he would never forget. Following the events of Danganronpa F1, Jay sought re-entry into Hope's Peak to complete the final year of his journey towards graduation and the promise of success.

In the non-F1 universe, one of the professors had approached Jay with a question which would change his life forever: "Mister Slezak, do you have a relative named Jeremy?" After learning about the new location, Jay had written and submitted a request letter immediately. His Wordsmith talent made it easy to convince the higher-ups to let him transfer to the new campus. He had helped his brother out for a week or so. On the night before classes started, something strange happened. This caused the Jay from the F1 universe, who had only been asked the question the day before, to end up there instead. The whereabouts of the original Jay are unknown.

ID #021:

Role*: Student

Name*: Mikael Joy Stanza

Age: Unknown, but definitely high school age

Gender: Male

Talent*: Ultimate Voice Actor

Appearance*: Mikael is shorter and thinner than average. He has average facial features, colorless irises, and short blue hair with fringe. One of the bangs is clipped shorter than the others. His normal outfit consists of a rainbow shirt, black pants, and red/grey sneakers.

Personality: Mikael is kind, dependable, and is always eager to try new things and make friends, partially fueled by his talent. He will be happy to demonstrate his voice acting abilities for you, but he may start to mimic your voice in front of you without thinking. He has always had an interest in learning as much as he can about other people, but he makes a point to be polite and respectful about it and never pries into personal matters.

Extra Info/Notes: Ever since he was a kid, Mikael realized he could mimic voices quite well. He spent hours every day honing that talent, participating in many school events, talent shows, and small projects for friends. Mikael's parents, Rhyme (mother) and Reason (father), never actually told Mikael when he was born for unknown reasons. Thus, they always celebrate on January 1st. Throughout his life, Mikael has actually gone through 27 different “default” voices as he tended to forget his voice after extended voice acting practices. Even when he recorded his voice, he could not manage to accurately replicate it.

ID #040:

Role*: Student

Name*: Mahina Hope

Age: 17

Gender: Female

Talent*: Ultimate Ukulele Player

Appearance*: Mahina has dark tan skin, black hair down to the small of her back, and dark brown eyes. She loves to wear flowery long-sleeve dresses/tops. On days she wears a top, she prefers dark plain skirts. She wears dark flats - she’s never cared for high heels. She doesn’t really go for jewelry much, either.

Personality: Mahina is chipper and quite lighthearted. Living on a tropical island her whole life has made her rather easygoing. She has a few qualms about obvious things, but there is one thing that really puts her off. She’s deathly afraid of knives.

Extra Info/Notes: Her parents are not native Hawaiians. They’d always dreamed of living on the islands though. They named their daughter Mahina Hope thinking it was clever - you see, Mahina’s parents are the Hawaiian equivalent of otaku. “Mahina Hope” means “Last Moon” in Hawaiian, but her parents wanted her to be the glimmer of hope in their otherwise dull and drab lives.

SoCot - 3 total (1x Staff (Janitor), 2x Student)

~~ID #001:~~

~~Role*: Student~~

~~Name*: Eta Trofi~~

~~Age: 24~~

~~Gender: Female~~

~~Talent*: Ultimate Baker~~

~~Important Stuff: A 24-year-old college student from Greece, Eta inherited her extraordinary baking skills from her mother, who has taught her the tricks of the trade since she was 6. In her spare time, she helps her mother in running her bakery. In her unspare time, she studies. A lot. She obviously gets her cooking classes from her mother, but she's taken Gender Studies, Fine Arts, History and Mathematics in college, and has to work hard constantly to keep her grades high. Her favourite colour is crimson, her favourite pastry is Swiss rolls, and she has an affinity for Greek Culture and Heritage.~~

~~She's a six foot tall brunette with long running hair and blue coloured eyes. She wears a purple...uh, top and a white... bottom? Idk I'm not too familiar with the names of female clothing but you probably know what I mean. Think Luna's dress from VLR.~~

~~She's usually very focused on her many duties, but when she's on this rather nice road trip, she's much more calm and lightheaded. With no real worries, she can become rather talkative, and has a strange obsession over mathematics. Except trigonometry. One time a trigonometry question kept her occupied for half the writing time of a test, and she still holds a grudge against the subject to this day.~~

Personality: After spending four years in Hope's Peak, 'Ultimate Janitor' was not the title Janis expected to receive. As such, she is cranky towards the students as they get to not only live lavishly for weeks and weeks altogether, but have a better chance at getting an actually decent job than she ever had.

Extra Info/Notes: Will clean up after the students whoever they go in whichever location they travel to. Prefers to be called 'Ms. Torr' rather than 'Janis', except for Jeremy, who is the only one she considers worthy of her respect.

Role: Student

Name: Thomlyn "Tom" Kneale

Age: 15

Gender: Male

Talent: Ultimate Chocolate Connoisseur

Appearance:

- As a twin Thomlyn looks rather like Feena. In some ways he is more masculine than her, but he's also somewhat effeminate, and as a result it's still very easy to confuse the two.
- He has somewhat long, brown hair, reaching down to his shoulders, and the hair at his fringe is pulled back to reveal his forehead. He typically has a slightly arrogant expression, but his brown eyes are warm and pertain to a kind personality beneath that.
- Thomlyn dresses a little formally, often preferring to wear a shirt and smart trousers even when relaxing at home. To keep up a professional and refined image he'll wear a blazer when going out, and he has a collection of cufflinks for his shirt. Sneak a look into the inside pocket of the blazer however and you'll find a tube of toothpaste and a toothbrush, which would lessen the refined effect should anyone choose to do that.
- He almost always carries a discrete suitcase with him. Inside is a collection of chocolates to snack on throughout the day.
- He wears a stylish smart watch on his left arm.

Personality: He can come off as arrogant, especially when it comes to food, but otherwise he's a nice enough guy, if a little too laid-back. He places a lot of emphasis on cleanliness and tidiness, one of the many things that puts him at odds with his sister. Out of the two he's definitely the more calm, rational one, though that certainly doesn't mean he's always right whenever they argue about something.

Extra Info/Notes:

- Feena's twin brother. He's the older twin.
- He was born with a very sensitive tongue, able to distinguish between even the subtlest of flavours. He could have been a connoisseur of many things, and even now is still an apt food critic, but the sweetness of chocolate beats all else for him.

ID #009:

Role: Student

Name: Feena Kneale

Age: 15

Gender: Female

Talent: Ultimate Spelunker

Appearance:

- As a twin Feena looks rather like Thomlyn. In some ways she is more feminine than him, but she's also a tomboy, and as a result it's still very easy to confuse the two.
- Her brown hair is quite short, all the better for crawling through small caves, especially when she needs to wear a helmet. Her eyes are yellow and unusually bright—in the right conditions it can even seem like they're glowing. She usually has a rather easygoing expression, but can quickly become serious when she's dealing with something she's passionate about.
- While spelunking she wears very practical clothes, a full bodysuit with various equipment strapped to it. As a result she likes to wear much lighter clothing in her normal life to feel freer. She likes wearing t-shirts and shorts, always trying to push how far into the colder seasons she does so, and once it becomes too impractical she switches over to tracksuits.
- Feena usually brings a small shoulder bag with her, with a variety of sometimes random seeming items inside. Notably she's taken to including basic medical supplies for all the random cuts and scrapes she gets while out adventuring, even when not spelunking.
- She wears a shiny golden ring on her right hand.

Personality: She's a wild child, rebellious and always on the lookout for adventure. Yet, out of the two siblings she's often the more serious one. Messy and disorganised, her brother is forced to admonish her often, and they get in frequent arguments. She's the more passionate of the two, but at times seems to display more common sense than Thomlyn.

Extra Info/Notes:

- Thomlyn's twin sister. She's the younger twin.
- She was born with very keen eyes, able to see much clearer in the dark than most others, and decently further too. This comes in very useful when spelunking.

ID #010:

Role: Student

Name: Sakura Himawari

Age: 17

Gender: Female

Talent: Ultimate Origami Practitioner

Appearance:

- Sakura's hair is tied into a braid that drapes over her left shoulder. It is dyed with pink streaks that alternate with the natural brown, which results in a spiralling pattern in the braid. Sometimes she wears a scarf around her head.
- She has pink-coloured eyes, and somewhat petite facial features.
- She usually wears sleeveless tops when the weather allows for it, revealing tattoos on her arms. Her right arm has a mixture of flower tattoos on it, while the left has various animals interlocked around it.
- Beyond that she likes to wear simple, wavy skirts, and pretty shoes. She also owns a longer skirt, patterned with cherry blossoms.

Personality: Sakura is an artist, and is a very expressive, creative person. She's free-spirited, optimistic and friendly, often the centre of attention. However she is also quite naïve, and a lack of interest in most non-art subjects has resulted in her falling behind and failing a lot of classes. She can be quite idealistic, for better and for worse.

Extra Info/Notes:

- She likes to fold paper models while talking with people, often creating things that match the topic of conversation.
- Working with origami for so long has left Sakura with rather smooth, calloused fingertips.
- She has zero knowledge of the Summer School from the other timeline. This Sakura is perhaps a little more mature than at the start of that RP due to other differences in the timeline, but she hasn't otherwise had to go through all the trauma the other version did.

He's also toned, but not particularly muscular.

Personality: Anton is an affable young man with a flair for the artistic. He tends towards grace in all of his actions, and doesn't like discord. This can give him an air of unapproachability, but in reality, he is very easy to talk to. In fact, once he starts talking, it can be rather difficult to get him to stop. He does on occasion give unsolicited advice, but he generally reserves this for his older brother.

Extra Info/Notes: He's the youngest of five siblings of Russian immigrants. In addition, although he isn't as proficient in them as the violin, Anton takes to playing other instruments, including the piano, cello and xylophone. ID #019:

Role: Student

Name: Austin Zimmern

Age: 16

Gender: Male

Talent Super High School Level Computer Programmer

Appearance: He has long, brown hair put up in a ponytail and deep brown eyes. His skin is slightly tanned. He has a muscular upper body, and is actually tall for his age, though the latter fact is hard to tell. Because he is in a brown wheelchair, which always makes a squeak when pushed from a complete stop. He tends to wear a red t-shirt, jeans, and a pair of black sandals.

Personality: Austin is a positive kid who likes to crack jokes. It doesn't seem like he is fazed by really anything. He is very kind to those who meet him. But he hasn't gotten out much before coming to this academy, which shows in his occasional naivety. In the event that something does bother him, he's not likely to say anything about it. He also can't tell a convincing lie. His face is far too expressive. He'd lose miserably at poker.

Extra Info/Notes: He's Cat's son, and never knew his father. His paralysis was caused by cerebral palsy. His hands and fingers twitch from time to time. He has chronic pain, does not tend to eat very much, and is prone to seizures. He always enjoyed computers. What started as simply playing computer games turned into a love of programming. He designed very simple programs for a time and seemed content with that. But then one day, he suddenly decided that wasn't good enough. He began designing program after program with increasing complexity, but never quite seems satisfied with his work.

ID #020:

Role: Parent

Name: Catherine "Cat" Zimmern

Age: 34

Gender: Female

Talent: Ultimate Crazy Cat Lady

Appearance: Short and slight with a pixie-like face, she has long, ratty brown hair that falls beyond her waist and huge, brown eyes that are constantly darting around. She wears a pink hoodie over a pink shirt, gray sweat pants, and white sneakers. She is always seen holding a Persian cat in her left arm and a black tuxedo cat (who is a tiny runt) in her right, with a string of five other cats (a Siamese, a Maine Coon, a Tabby, an American Shorthair, and a Sphinx) walking behind her in a line.

Personality: Cat is highly energetic, always flitting to and fro. She clearly loves cats, and all cute things. She giggles almost all the time and kisses the cheeks of everyone when she first meets them. She likes to smoosh Austin's face in a teasing manner as she talks about how cute and sweet he is. She doesn't seem to understand her son's talent, but she does understand that he is finally out of the house and she is very relieved by this. She never bothers to bottle up any emotions of hers and is a very much what you see is what you get type. She rambles on and on about cats and Austin all the time. She is a bit of a helicopter mom.

Extra Info/Notes: At 17, Cat got pregnant. Her boyfriend got scared and ran away after that, leaving her to raise Austin by herself. Her pregnancy was full of complications, but she did eventually have Austin, prematurely. The fact that he was born with cerebral palsy caused her no end of grief and she blames herself for it to this day. Raising a disabled child on only one income was tough, and she had to take more than one job to afford it. That meant daycare, babysitters, and leaving Austin home alone much of the time when he was old enough that he didn't need either. She feels guilty for this, too. But at least he always had cats to keep him company? All domesticated breeds of cats have always been inexplicably drawn to Cat, which has caused her to get fired multiple times.

She tried to take her son out to do fun things when she was there, and he used to enthusiastically agree. But then he one day stopped doing so, telling her he'd rather stay in. And now he finally got into this academy? She couldn't possibly be prouder!

Age: 27

Gender: Female

Talent*: Ultimate Cheerleader

Appearance*: Lida has a tall, willowy frame, and is slightly underweight. Her skin is very pale. Her eyes appear blue, green, or even slightly gray depending on the light. But if one looks closely, one will see her eyes are actually blueish-green with flecks of brown. She has slightly wavy ash blonde hair that falls just past her shoulders. She wears square-framed, red glasses. Her favorite outfit to wear while working is a royal blue button down shirt, a dark green jacket, a black skirt, and black sandals. She doesn't wear makeup or high heels.

Personality: Lida cares deeply for all of the people she counsels, be they student, parent, or faculty. She is highly encouraging and cheers on anyone who walks into her office. She stresses the importance of those she counsels sharing their honest thoughts and feelings. She genuinely wants those she talks to to succeed. However, she tends not to let her own feelings known except to those she really trusts and forces herself to appear happy and energetic even when she isn't either of those things. She phrases things awkwardly sometimes and lets herself get talked over really easily. When she gets too excited, she has been known to slush her "s"es and not announce very well when it comes to lip poppers. She freezes in the face of too much conflict, but is good at comforting people after said conflict. Usually.

Extra Info/Notes: Lida is practically fresh out of college with her degree. This is her first "real" job and she's excited to get started!
