Provost News

Dear Students,

I hope you are having a great week. This Monday, February 17, is a reflection day. This means that, students, you have the morning off. Academic classes, and all classes before 3 p.m. will not meet on Monday.

However, in the afternoon on Monday, there will be a special presentation very much focused on the 2026 tour that President Devey discussed at Wednesday's community meeting. The event features guest scholar Jan Swafford and is from 1:00 - 2:30 p.m., in Corson. I encourage everyone to be there. This session is required for all students in History and English Language classes, as well as for all students in Orchestra, Wind Symphony, and Choir. All other students, faculty and staff are invited and welcome to attend as well. Please plan to be there.

Professor Swafford, an expert musicologist, will share thoughts and analysis about Charles Ives and his Symphony No. 4, which will be the featured piece in our 2026 Centennial Tour. Remember, the tour is titled "Imagine US" (a play on the U.S. and "us," we the people). This session is a chance to learn more about the music, program, and themes for the tour. As President Devey noted, History and English Language students will be asked to write about themes surrounding America's 250th birthday (the U.S.'s semiquicentennial), which happens in 2026, the year of our tour and also the beginning of Interlochen's centennial celebrations. We turn 100 in 2028. We are asking students to explore themes that lift up the promise of the U.S., what is best about who we are, and what we can become. How do we envision our future: Imagine US. Your ideas will help shape the developing program for the tour—so this is very important work. This chance to meet with Professor Swafford is not to be missed.

All students will then attend their Arts Block classes, starting at 3 p.m.

I hope you enjoy the extra time off to rest and reflect on all the wonderful things you have accomplished this year.

SUMMER PROGRAMS

Pre-college summer program applications are open at most institutions. We hope you will consider exploring a program at a college that interests you!

Would you like to take a summer class? Interlochen Online, Michigan Virtual, BYU, IU, and Fusion Academy have options available. Your Academic and College Counselor (ACC) will be happy to discuss your summer plans with you.

SENIORS

- File your FAFSA! If you haven't applied for the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) yet, we encourage you to do so as soon as possible! Many colleges have deadlines this month. Completing the FAFSA is essential for accessing federal financial aid, including grants, scholarships, work-study opportunities, and student loans. Many states and colleges also use FAFSA information to determine eligibility for additional financial aid. Complete your application here.
- College Scholarships: Check out GoingMerry and FastWeb to see scholarship options.
- SCOIR Survey: Please check your Scoir account for a "Scholarships and Awards" survey. Gathering this information helps us guide future students toward colleges that offer substantial financial aid. When you receive an offer, please update this survey.

JUNIORS

Watch for emails from your ACC regarding your Wednesday workshops. And, please remember to schedule your College Planning Meeting with your ACC. These meetings will begin in February and extend through April. You may book your one-on-one meeting through your ACC's Calendly Page.
