

THINGS TO DO IN STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

Stockholm offers a great blend of city culture and natural beauty. Here are just a few ideas of activities and places to visit. Please note: we may already be visiting some of these locations and some may have an entrance fee.

- Royal Djurgården - this island in central Stockholm has several historical buildings and monuments, museums and galleries including the Vasa Museum, Gröna Lund Amusement Park, Skansen, the world's oldest open air museum, the Biological Museum, the ABBA Museum, and the Nordic Museum, as well as many footpaths and water front promenades.
- Swedish History Museum, where you will experience dramatic life stories, power struggles, love, celebration and everyday life from the ice age to the present.
- The Nobel Prize Museum, the museum gives the history of Nobel and his prize, and then uses donated objects from past winners to tell stories.
- The Royal Palace, is His Majesty The King's official residence and one of the country's most important buildings, and a concrete symbol of the course of Norwegian history since 1814.
- City Hall, with great views of the city.
- Drottningholm Palace, is a Unesco Heritage Site located on Lovön island. It is the most well-preserved royal castle built in the 1600s in Sweden.
- National Museum, Sweden's museum of art and design.
- Södermalm island with its cafes, shops and nightlife and the trendy Fotografiska, a contemporary photo gallery in a former industrial building by the water.
- Kungsträdgården, the park's central location and its outdoor cafés makes it one of the most popular hangouts and meeting places in Stockholm.
- Monteliusvägen, a footpath on steep cliffs. It offers impressive views of Stockholm.
- Yarn shops - The current listed yarn shops in Stockholm include Litet Nystan and Klara Tyg and Garn, and STHLM Knit Company. Check first for closures and new listings.