❝ OH, MY SWEET LITTLE GIRL,
HOLD YOUR MOUTH AND YOU'LL BE ALRIGHT… ❞

- Height about 7'0".
- Dark grey, gooey skin.
- Hollow slits for eyes.
- Sharp teeth of uneven length.
- Has long, protruding, tentacle-like barbed black tongues that reach to her stomach. Used to wrap around (sometimes multiple) victims' heads to suck their memories.
- Cannot speak in this form, however she still possesses the same consciousness and intelligence she does in human form.

Notes:

- Heavily inspired by Venom from Spider-Man and Hollowgasts from Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children.
- Her current glamour barely contains this monster form, so parts of this may occasionally appear in her human guise. Black slime may drip from her mouth/nose, or she may have a tentacle in place of her tongue.
