

Hey <Name>,

I wanted to follow up on the business ideas I sent you earlier. Have you had a chance to review them?

If not, no problem. And if you're not interested at this time, please let me know so we can avoid any further follow-up.

Best regards,
Ethan

Hey <Name>,

I had some time away from work and was wondering how your day was going.

Did you have any time to review the business ideas I sent you earlier?

If you're interested I would like to schedule a call with you during this week.

But if you're uninterested simply let me know so we can avoid further follow-up.

Best regards,
Ethan
