Incident Report

The statue was (to my knowledge) first spotted by 049 he said it had appeared in his containment chamber and had given him “quite a scare” and then disappeared, later when I was clearing Euclid wing due to a mimic breach I went down to check on 049 and it appeared behind me also scaring me a little, when I tried to see if it could speak or communicate it did not respond and when I tried to inspect it I blinked and it disappeared. Later when I, Amnesia, and Dior were dealing with another mimic breach it appeared behind us again, scaring us a little, we got a few photos of it but due to the mimic breach, we were unable to give any inspections. We got a few reports of it around the site doing the same thing, appearing behind people and scaring them but never harming them, then all of its activity suddenly stopped but we expect it to return.
