BIOGRAPHY

Junko and Hanako met at eleven years old when they were recruited into King Kota Amasaki's underground idol ring. For five years, they performed all along the Yakuza gangster club circuit. Together, they endured all manner of trauma before realizing their "dream" of becoming a number one idol unit was never meant to come true.

Eventually, they tried to escape.

Junko made it out.

Hanako died.

Five years later, Junko is trying to make it as a number one pro-wrestler and Hanako is alive again, having learned the true power of fighting spirit from a mysterious mentor in Deepest Darkest Japan.

JNK & HNK.

Together forever.

Friends to the end.
