

Terms of Service

- Payment is required before commission is started through a PayPal invoice sent by me. If you would like to use a different pay service like Venmo or Stripe, let me know in advance.
- Payment upfront, or Partial payment/payment plans is an option only upon request.
- Payments of digital currency, such as bitcoins, will not be accepted and will be immediately refunded.
- Artwork commissioned cannot be used for any NFTs.
- Commissions are for personal/non-commercial use only. No piece is granted commercial use unless we've discussed it previously. A commercial license CAN be issued but for a fee that will need to be discussed on an individual basis. I may post finished commissions on social media and/or portfolio website unless stated otherwise.
- I do not refund, full or partially after I've started your commission, but you may cancel your commission at any time before paying your invoice. If I need to cancel a commission for any reason, a full refund will be issued. If I need to cancel because you've violated my terms of service, you will receive a partial refund based on how much work is left in the commission.
- If you need a commission started or finished by a certain date, please let me know at the time of requesting a commission. If the date you need a commission finished by is within a week of me accepting it, a rush fee will be applied based on the complexity of the commission. (i.e., if you need a shaded portrait in five days, expect at least a $15 rush fee; could be more based on the complexity of what you ask for but that would be the starting fee for something like that.)

- Two revision rounds are free, but $5 will be charged for each round after two revisions.
- Commission should be completed within 3 weeks of payment, depending on complexity, unless stated otherwise. I will keep the client updated on progress if the commission is extensive and the turnaround time is long.

*By commissioning me, you agree to the information listed above. Failure to abide by these terms may result in you being blacklisted from my services. If you have any questions feel free to email or message me.
