

Terms of Service

By commissioning me you are agreeing to this. Have any questions? Ask!

Contact me via notes or e-mail (Note me for it)

--Payment Info--

I do commissions roughly in order of payment received and do not start work until I get payment.

I accept Paypal or square payments - I will send an invoice to your email once I have accepted your slot.

If you do not pay within 48 hours, I will cancel your invoice.

--Time frame--

I work on these artwork pieces inbetween my suit job - typically, once I get started on your badge it can take up to a week to get them finished, depending on what is happening during that week. I aim to get your badge completed and sent to you within three months of you having commissioned me - this does also include the acrylic badge (if you pick that option).

--The Process--

Send me a form asking for a quote on your art. Asking for a quote doesn't mean you have to commission me, they're for informative purposes. Should you decide to commission me, payment info is above.

I will update you step-by-step through the commission process. You will be updated with a sketch, ink, flat color, and fully shaded steps for approval before I continue. When given a step for approval I ask that you thoroughly check it over, especially in the sketch and lineart stage. if you approve a step I will assume it's exactly as you want it and will not make changes to approved parts of an image. If you require major changes I may do so, but I may also ask for extra payment.

--Content--

I will draw anthros, quads, taurs and so forth. Be warned, I am slightly limited with humans – so don't expect too much. I will draw any Safe for Work images, and suggestive images (Pin up styles being an example). I reserve the right to refuse to draw any particular content.

As my Main source of art at the moment is the dangle badges, they are safe for work, and will not be nsfw.

--Private Commissions--

Do not want your commission to be made public? No problem! If I can change the characters to my own/more generic characters or leave names off there will be no extra charge. To keep me from uploading to my gallery altogether I'll ask that you pay me an extra 20% of the commission price. For example, if your commission was for $100 I'll ask for $120.

--Rush Orders/Due Dates--

If your image must be done by a certain date let me know before I accept your payment. The ability to do a rush order also depends on my schedule... ask first.

When I give a set date for showing the first image (be it sketch or icon and so on) I will try my best to reach that date without having shown at least one image for your approval / finished commission.

IF I do miss the date by a day, please do not assume that I've run off with your item! I assure you I do my best to keep my customers happy along every step of the way with their commissions!

--Permissions--

I retain all rights to my artwork unless stated otherwise. I may alter, print, sell digital copies, or whatever I please. If you wish to restrict my use of the art it will have to be discussed ahead of time before I accept your commission.

You may post your commission into your gallery (if the commission has multiple characters those characters' owners may do the same), but you must credit back to me. You may upload the image into your own personal webspace. You may print for your own personal use.

You may NOT profit from it. I retain ownership of the image unless previously discussed in writing. You may NOT sell prints/t-shirts/etc of the image.

You may NOT use my art for advertising.

You may NOT edit my signature out of the image.

If you wish to use my art for profit or advertising we can discuss the project on a case-by-case basis. Unless I have sent you a message expressly stating you CAN, you have no permission.

--Refunds---

If you need a refund then it must be requested before work begins. If I've already started work your refund will be partial depending on how much work I've done. You do not need to explain to me WHY you need a refund, but please let me know as soon as you find you need it. If you chargeback the money when the commission is done and approved, I will be forced to blacklist you, and expose your name to other artists in the community.

--Cancellation/Refusal---

I reserve the right to refuse a commission or cancel a commission for any reason. If I cannot understand what you're saying when you message me, if I don't feel comfortable doing your image, or if your due date is unreasonable I may refuse to take your work on. If you make too many adjustments, request major changes after previously approving certain steps, or become rude/obnoxious I may cancel. Depending on the circumstances of cancellation I may refund all, partial, or no payment if I have already taken it.
