

Bryant Middle School

Student of the Month Nomination Criteria

Student of the Month is a schoolwide initiative designed to promote and recognize student success in and outside of the classroom. Students must exemplify the outstanding characteristics of a Bryant Eagle.

To be nominated, the student must be in good academic standing, exhibit positive behavior, have good attendance, and is respectful, safe, and responsible.

Who Nominates?

BMS teachers will nominate students each month. Each month the staff will be reminded of the nomination deadline, the 3rd Friday of the month, and will be sent a link to complete the electronic nomination application. Each staff member can only nominate one (1) student per month.

Selections

One boy and one girl will be selected. The selected student's picture and name will be showcased during the month of recognition on the school's blog and in the Student of the Month display case near the auditorium. The administration will also present a Student of the Month Certificate and a prize to the student during lunch. Applicants that are not selected may be nominated for the following month.

Nomination Questions to Consider:

Academic

Does the student come to class prepared for classroom activities?

Does the student go above and beyond his/her role as a student?

Has the student made significant progress in your classroom?

Has the student been working to/or above their potential?

Does the student have all work turned in?

Has the student improved grades or participation in your class?

Has the student improved their attendance and/or punctuality?

Citizenship

Is the student a positive role model?

Does the student actively participate and put forth full effort?

Does the student follow school rules?

Does the student arrive at school and to class on time?

Does the student engage in extracurricular activities?

Has the student volunteered at school or in the community?

Does the student demonstrate respect to self, the student body, and staff?

Does the student demonstrate responsibility to themselves, the student body, and staff?

Does the student demonstrate care to themselves, the student body, and staff?

The reward will include:

- Certificate of Recognition
- Gift card or lunch option
