OVERVIEW

Have you ever felt as though your social status prevents you from being effective in making disciples? Paul tells the Corinthians that they can bring God glory wherever they find themselves in life. Marital status, employment status, etc.: find contentment there. Seek faithfulness and contentment no matter your place in society.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Have you ever felt as though something prevents you from being content? “I’ll be happy when I finally have that: nice car, better job, cleaner house, great marriage, more time, kids in the home, kids out of the home, easy retirement, fulfilling hobby, new gadget, etc.”
- What from the list above are you drawn to for contentment? What would happen if you got it?
- Why should we be content with our station in life? What about the Lord’s character ought to cause us to rest in all circumstances?
