PUPIL EXPECTATIONS

Formulated by Pangbourne Student Council for the Centenary and updated as required

What are Expectations?

Expectation; “the feeling of expecting something to happen”, a set of goals or standards that can be expected of a group or individuals. For example, you could expect a policewoman to be fair, unbiased and responsible, a nurse to be caring and skillful.

Each of us can judge ourselves or be judged by others, against these expectations.

Pupil Expectations
Lessons	To help contribute to the best possible learning of each member of our class we will; • be prompt to the start of our lessons • not be afraid to ask questions of our teacher • know our personal targets for the subject • show respect for all members of the class • recognise ‘just enough’ as not enough • be proud of our work; ‘if a job’s worth doing, it’s worth doing well.’ • Listen, read and act on feedback • prepare for our lessons - Review, Equipment, Mindset [REM] • be open and happy to do extension work rather than seeing it as a chore • try to contribute and take an active role in all lessons. • take responsibility to catch up with any lessons missed • get in contact with the teacher or use academic clinics for support • not disrupt others nor shout out • listen to each other when making contributions • be proactive in note taking or getting on with work - not waiting to be asked
Prep and Out of Class	Work completed outside lesson time helps to either prepare for the next lesson or review the learning of the previous lesson. To get the most from Prep, we will; • meet deadlines, contacting teachers in advance if we know we may not be able to do so.

In addition, to help others around us we will;

- respect those around us, so that when not focussed ourselves we do not distract others
- use headphones to help with concentration during prep rather than speakers

All pupils will behave as “College Ambassadors” at all times, including out of term time. As ambassadors we will uphold the Values of the College and conduct ourselves in such a way that will show us and the College as the caring community it is.
