

Subject: Internship Proposal for Digital Marketing

Hello,

My name is Erdem, and I'm reaching out to propose a business opportunity.

After reviewing many boxing gyms in Berlin, your overwhelmingly positive Google comments and social media presence stood out. I believe we can work together to promote your business/Gym through increasing reach and interest.

Being new to this field, my priority is to gain proven credentials. This means I would gladly conduct this work for your business for free.

As a copywriter and digital marketing consultant, I offer:

- Social media advertisements
- Crafting compelling emails for potential and existing clients
- Refining written material
- Website building and design
- Creating blog posts

Addition skills, but not limited to:

- Photoshop, data analysis, and web-crawling

May you direct me to the person for whom this concern matters to at [Gym_Name] so we may explore any possibilities of value for [Gym_Name]?

My contact information is:

Thank you,

Sincerely,

Erdem Karagöz

PS:

Wanted to keep it plain and simple. Hope it's better this time.

If you're wondering why I didn't include my phone number in the end, it's because the signal is very poor where I live. I don't want them to call me and have difficulty understanding due to the bad connection.

Please let me know if we can arrange a time to discuss the details.

Hello Ms./Mr. X,

After reviewing many Berlin boxing gyms online, your positive reviews caught my attention.

It's clear that you are passionate about your work, which has earned you a great online reputation already. However, to increase trust and encourage even more people to visit your gym you could do even more, like providing short boxing tips.

I've got other ideas that could lead your business to bigger growth. Would you be interested in discussing this further ?

Betreff: Angebot für Online-Wachstum

Hallo Herr X,

Nachdem ich mir viele Kampfsport-Studios in Berlin online angesehen habe, sind mir Ihre positiven Bewertungen aufgefallen.

Es ist offensichtlich, dass Sie leidenschaftlich bei der Sache sind, was Ihnen bereits einen hervorragenden Ruf im Internet eingebracht hat. Um das Interesse weiter zu steigern und noch mehr Menschen zu ermutigen, Ihr Studio zu besuchen, könnten Sie kurze Kampftipps auf Instagram anbieten.

Ich habe weitere Ideen, die Ihrem Geschäft zu einem größeren Wachstum verhelfen könnten. Wären Sie daran interessiert, dies näher zu besprechen?

Mit freundlichen Grüßen,
Erdem
