PROMPT :-

A cinematic, conceptual 9:16 portrait of a young Indian woman standing in front of an etched decorative mirror. The woman is seen from the back/side (over-the-shoulder view), wearing a traditional purple and red silk saree with a jasmine flower garland (gajra) in her dark hair. She is touching the glass of the mirror with both hands. Crucially, the mirror does not reflect her; instead, it shows the clear, smiling reflection of a specific young Indian man (short dark hair, groomed beard, wearing a light pink button-down shirt), representing her thoughts and love for him. The mirror is framed with warm fairy lights and a heart shape made of glowing bokeh hearts is visible behind the man's reflection inside the mirror. Soft, warm studio lighting, 4K, high detail, shallow depth of field with a creamy blurred background, beauty photography style, emotional and romantic atmosphere
