

Subject line: "1.7 million devoted email subs & only 1% is needed" Email (Live - Real Outreach to potential prospect in the corrective exercise niche: Here is the email I sent; What if you could close only 1% of those email subscribers?

I think you would be satisfied with $17,000 every month coming in your bank account from ONLY emails alone.

That does not include YouTube money, nor from your clients that come to you to be coached by yourself Tyler.

I'd like to slowly intrigue your readers with the resources YOU KNOW YOU HAVE at the click of a button.

It requires a simple 123 process that involves certain actions in your emails to happen to trigger a specific focus on a certain audience.

What if you got 17,000 more to visit your website?

Now, Tyler I don't like to spoil things, but I also don't like to keep it much of a secret or that mystery BS. So, I'll tell you this as bluntly as I can.

I haven't tested this in anyone else's emails...

You have so much to do and so free value to give to your peeps.

People need to simplify and speed up the process of choosing their certification.

Just like I selfishly want to help you improve your emails to potentially get you more engagement online I know you know that I know you deserve to have.

What do you say?

Don't decide right away of course because I'm too tired frankly. Let me get my 8 hrs of sleep and some coffee first. .

Just kidding! I'm ready when you are.

Hope to hear from you soon... or in this case, see you.
Shoot me an email back if you decide to work together with me.
