Translate into Romanian: The terms „organized crime” and „criminal enterprise” have the same meaning. Usually a group of several people organizes itself around a leader; they generate illegal income. The target is to obtain money through illegal activities. They make use of violence and threats, corrupt public officials, extortion, and people feel the impact of their activities. They are busy with money laundering, obstruction of justice, murder for hire, drug trafficking, prostitution, alien smuggling, bribery and fraud, antiquities trafficking and art crime.
