Wig Review Sheet

1. The reasons that wigs are worn include:

2. The most expensive type of human hair is:

3. Tucks are alterations made vertically. T or F

4. What can wigs be made of?

5. Human hair wigs should be cleaned how often?

6. Thermal hot iron styling is recommended for wigs made of:

7. The animal whose hair can be made into wigs is:

8. The natural white hair of a horse lends itself to be used for fantasy hair wigs. T or F

9. Hot water should be used to reform synthetic pieces. T or F

10. The type of block that is preferred when styling a wig is?

11. A human hair wig should not be permed if it has been treated with?

12. Human hair is more or less expensive?

13. Cost and maintenance must be covered during consultation. T or F

14. Human hair will burn slower than synthetic hair and produce a strong odor. T or F

15. Synthetic hair can be colored using fabric dye. T or F

16. Canvas blocks come in how many different sizes?

17. Murphy’s oil soap can be used to clean human wigs. T or F

18. Transplanting plugs is the most common replacement for men. T or F

19. The two general categories for wigs are:

20. It is easy to match human hair color with a synthetic wig. T or F

21. Is fusion a considered a temporary hairpiece?

22. Wigs can be custom made or stock. T or F

23. The method of wig construction that is the least expensive is?

24. In the track and sew method, wefted hair is attached to braids on the scalp. T or F

25. When styling a wig, the goal is to make it look _____.

26. The type of hairpiece that has large holes in the base which the client has their own hair pulled through is called?

27. The synthetic fiber that is considered top-of-the-line is:

28. Synthetic hair would be easier to maintain for someone who has a hard time lifting their arms. T or F

29. Would wigs be considered the addition of small hair pieces?

30. The test that is performed to determine whether hair is human or synthetic is called?

31. Human hair wigs and additions will react to the elements just like natural hair. T or F

32. Indian and Asian hair are two types of hair most commonly used for human hair wigs or pieces. T or F

33. Hair that has been shed as opposed to cut is called:

34. Backcombing can be performed on wigs made of: