Procedure

I Introduction

1. Greeting

Good morning. Tell me, how are you? Who chooses the first, second, third smile?
So, if you are OK, let's start our lesson.

2. Check-in homework

At the previous lesson we were talking about symbols of the UK. Your home task was to learn them. Let's check how well you know them.

On the desk you can see pictures of the symbols. Match them and the names of the countries which you can see on the board.

England – St. George, red rose, lion

Wales – St. David, daffodil, red dragon

Northern Ireland – St. Patrick, shamrock

Scotland – St. Andrew, thistle, unicorn

3. Aim and topic of the lesson

Now you have already known symbols of the UK and its countries.

Tell me, what else you would like to know about Britain?

Today we are going to learn more about Britain, some facts about this country and find out more about famous places of London.

II Main part of the lesson

1. Watch and complete (pair-work). Window on Britain Part 1

How much you know about Britain? Watch the video and complete the sentences with the numbers. You have 2 extra numbers which you don't need to use.

42 9 75 24 2 10 12

- a) Over ____ % of the land in Britain is farmland.
- b) Only ____ % of the working population are farmers.
- c) Britain has ____ national parks.
- d) National parks cover ____ % of Britain.
- e) Over ____ million foreign tourists come to Britain every year.

2. Puzzle

You have to match questions and answers on the pictures. If there are some words you don't know, write them down. Because at the end of the lesson you will have to answer some questions.

- 1. The nickname of the British policemen – Bobbies
- 2. The Tower of London was – a prison
- 3. Name of the famous London's bus – Double-decker

III Conclusion

1. Homework

At home you have to find more information about Britain and make 5 questions to ask them to the classmates.

2.Summing-up

To sum up I want you to choose one of the smiles:

- Choose this smile if you know some sights of Britain and London.
- Choose this smile if you can name most of the sights of Britain and London, can tell some information about them and can make indirect questions or you modal verbs, but make some mistakes.
- Choose this smile if you can name most of the sights of Britain and London, can tell some information about them and can make indirect questions or you modal verbs and do it correctly.

You were working well today. Later I will put your marks into the day books. Thank you. The lesson is over. Have a nice day.
