

Parkstone Periodical

February 2021

Welcome to the Linsmeier's

Cecilia and John Linsmeier have purchased the Mainer's home at 12361 S. Parkstone Court. He works in sales at a local radio station and she is a department manager at Macy's. They have three grown children and one grandchild. Please welcome our newest Parkstone neighbors.

Draper Parkstone Website

As you know, Parkstone has its own website at <http://www.draperparkstone.com/>. The website includes a community calendar, with garbage and recycling pickup dates, as well as HOA Board Meeting time and other HOA dates. You can find Parkstone's foundational documents, including the Covenants, Conditions & Restrictions (CC&Rs), the By-Laws, and Rules and Regulations. Past issues of the Parkstone Periodicals are archived on the website, as are minutes of HOA Board of Trustees meetings.

Soon there will be a link to our Parkstone HOA Google Group, where community residents can share ideas, concerns, and opportunities. Parkstone residents have already been invited to join, using email addresses on file with the HOA.

Annual Meeting Delay

Due to the ongoing Coronavirus situation, the HOA Board has made the decision to delay our annual meeting until May or June. Our typical meeting locations, such as the Draper Library still do not allow public meetings the size we need. We believe an in-person meeting is important, so we are preliminarily planning a socially-distanced gathering in the Common Area as weather permits.

COVID-19 Vaccinations

For those of you interested in obtaining vaccination against the COVID-19 virus, we have found the best source of information is the Salt Lake County Health Department at <https://slco.org/health/COVID-19/vaccine/>. Whether you choose to get vaccinated or not, please follow widely-accepted practices to keep your neighbors safe and healthy.
