

“Psalm 91”

Mark Morris

Psalm 91:16

This song is a great song of safety for those who put their trust in the Lord.

It also contains the divine assurance that this faith will be fruitful.

Verse 16 is the conclusion of this Psalm. As he closes the Psalm this uses great boldness as he expresses the safety of the soul who will trust in the Lord, and also gives the testimony of God as well as that of a man to this truth.

As David concludes he states that the Lord will satisfy the believer with long life.

Our expectations as believers and are living a long life we should expect.

1. Deliverance. Our age carries a unique set of problems. Anxiety, depression, and the fear of financial problems can hold us hostage.
2. Fulfilment. We should expect this stage of life to be as fulfilling as any other stage of life. This can happen as we trust in Jesus.
3. Health. As our bodies age we literally wear out. We can't expect to be as we were in our thirties but I believe we can have good health as our souls prosper.

Let's trust in the Lord to bless this time of our life as we trust in Him.
