Shopping in London

Shopping in London is very easy and interesting. Oxford street is the most popular and biggest shopping centre in the capital of Great Britain. Various department stores and shops attract many natives and people from other countries.

All the department stores and shops are usually open till 18.00 except on Sunday.

If you can't go shopping during the day you can make purchase on Thursday after office hours, as the shops close at 8 o'clock in Oxford Street on that day. There are many book shops, shoe shops, clothes shops and other kinds of shops in the Oxford street. Some people prefer large department stores because they offer many different goods at a single location.

There are different kinds of shops in Oxford Street: there are clothes shops and shoe shops, book shops and dress shops. But many people prefer a department store, as if offers almost everything in one building.

Selfridge`s is one of the largest and most popular department stores in Oxford street. There are over 230 various departments in this department store. They sell everything here: women`s clothes, men`s clothes, shoes, toys, sports goods, umbrellas, leather goods, china and glass, food and so on. All the things for sale are on the counters. The customers walk round and choose what they want. This department store is not very cheap. For example, Marks and Spenser`s offers a cheaper shopping.

Selfridge`s is a very expensive department store, that is why most Londoners have to go to cheaper shops: Mark`s and Spenser`s for clothes and supermarkets have become very popular with shoppers. They sell not only food, but also ready-made clothes, toys and other goods. They are self-service shops.
