

ESPAÑOL 3-4

¡Bienvenidos al laboratorio de lenguas! (Welcome to the Language Lab!)

Welcome to the language lab. We will come down here periodically to get further practice in reading, writing, listening, and speaking Spanish. Each time we come down to the lab, follow the steps listed below:

1. Check your station. This includes checking the headset, keyboard, and general area of your station for obvious signs of abuse or misuse. MAKE SURE TO REPORT ANY PROBLEMS/GRAFFITI, ETC. TO ME BEFORE YOU BEGIN WORKING!
2. Please remember there is no eating or drinking.
3. NO texting in the lab! iPods/phones are okay to listen to while doing the grammar exercises (not when viewing the videos, obviously). *Please ask me if you'd like to use your phone for music.
4. Please DO NOT go to any websites that have not been "assigned." If/when you finish the assigned lab work for the class period, you may ASK PERMISSION to go to another website.
5. Please also recall that you get a grade for being in the lab today. Violation of any of the lab rules will result in a loss of points.
6. Open up another tab or window so you always have your lab "to-do" list in one window and an extra window for doing assignments. (Enter "CTRL+T" to create a new tab/"CTRL" +N for new window---either one is fine). MAKE SURE YOU ARE NOT ON ANY PAGE OTHER THAN THE ASSIGNED PAGES OR YOU WILL LOSE POINTS FOR YOUR LAB DAY!**

Go to www.conjuguemos.com and register for an account if you do not have one from last year.
