

Dress Code Policy

Goals:

- Promote a safe, respectful learning environment
- Reflect community standards
- Prepare students for workplace expectations
- Support individual dignity and expression- within reasonable limits

Not Allowed:

- Clothing or accessories with profanity, drugs, alcohol, tobacco, or weapons
- Anything sexually suggestive, violent in nature, or deemed by staff to be in poor taste for a K-12 public school setting
- Any top exposing midriff, cleavage, excessive back, undergarments, or that has straps less than 1" wide
- Shorts, skirts, or dresses that expose a student's buttocks when sitting, standing, or bending
- Jeans and shorts with holes above mid-thigh
- Hats, hoods, bandanas, or sunglasses (except for religious or medical reasons)
- See-through mesh or fishnet without an underlayer garment
- Outerwear, blankets, and backpacks anywhere other than lockers
- Slippers intended for household wear

Spirit Days:

- Dress code may be relaxed, but within reason

Enforcements & Consequences:

In addition to immediate correction (change into something appropriate, whether student or school-supplied), the following tiered-list of consequences will be applied:

1st Offense – Corrective & Educational

- Written warning in student discipline record. Reminder of policy.

2nd Offense – Intervention & Documentation

- Written warning in student discipline record. Reminder of policy.
- Student calls home to notify parent.

3rd Offense – Escalated Consequences

- Detention for repeated disregard of policy.
- Parent conference to discuss repeated concerns and future ramifications.

4th Offense – Persistent/Defiant Non-Compliance

- In-school suspension (ISS) for continued refusal to comply.
- Out-of-school suspension (only for extreme, defiant, or unsafe situations).
