

Resources for Discussing the Election After Election Day

1. What Do We Tell Our Children? : A brief guide on what to say to students to help them feel safe, learn about civic duty, and process the outcome.
2. The Day After : Practical activities to help students process the election and build classroom community.

If you know of any other resources please leave a comment or share them below: