

Devaa Haley Mitchell - Feminine Soul Initiation

Program Overview:

What You Will Experience

We are excited to bring you a self-study program that takes you into the deep inner work you need to affect positive change in the world and enjoy a fulfilling and prosperous life.

This path is NOT a formulaic, one-size-fits-all approach to spirituality. You will open and expand in unique ways that are tailor-made for your current level of evolution.

Some women go on to create more financial abundance while others experience profound healing or improved well-being. Most deepen their relationships and create more intimacy in their lives. Others step into their calling and begin living from a more sacred place.

Your soul will show you the way...if you let it.

Transforming Your Inner World

One of the core principles of this program is that deeper inner work empowers women to realize their full potential. Our gateway is through archetypes — universal, cross-cultural patterns of energy and potential that represent different aspects of the Divine Feminine.

On this journey, you'll go through 13 different archetypal initiations — one for each archetype — and learn how to access their unique qualities, blessings and powers, expanding your sense of freedom and wholeness (see details below).

Module 1: Initiation of the Great Mother: From Not Enough to More Than Enough

The way of the Great Mother is the way of receptivity. She is accessed through surrender and adoration. She empowers through nurturing and preserving. She provides us with a feeling of safety, security and deep presence.

In this module, you will:

- Discover how to source your true self from an overflowing, nurturing well that will feed your life and all your projects.
- Create daily practices to connect to your feminine nature and sustain it.

- Connect with your body through a deeper exploration of menstrual and lunar cycles — and discover how we can align with them for greater grace and ease of manifestation.
- Learn to get comfortable with the unknown and allow the new and unexpected to emerge.

Module 2: Initiation of the Goddess of Compassion: From Self-Criticism to Self-Acceptance

The Compassionate One offers us unconditional love and mercy. She is accessed through the portal of humility and forgiveness. Her energy is like water in a slow-moving stream, and she teaches us fluidity and being in the flow.

In this module, you will:

- Discover how to lead from a compassionate heart, and still get things done!
- Recognize ways that you undermine yourself, damaging our own power in the world.
- Awaken practices of forgiveness and self-acceptance, and open to an increased sense of worthiness.
- Release yourself from the bonds of perfection, judgment and criticism, so that you can be free to offer your gifts more fully in the world.
