	Tell us a little about your classes and teaching style and your training or whatever you wish to share. Love introducing the art of Ikebana to the American General Public. Love still be able to volunteer and give back. Will love to travel to nearby chapter and get to know others: friendship through flowers I enjoy teaching my grand daughter and would love the opportunity to work with kids of all age... thinking of developing curriculum specific for kids.
	Over the past 20 years, I have learned from many great teachers: my cousin Mitzi Yau ( Toronto Ohara 1st master) Yum Young ( NJ retired Ohara 1st master) and Akiko Bourland ( San Diego Ohara grand master) I have also been attending the Annual Ohara Master Workshop where I had the opportunities to learn from professors from Japan including our headmaster Hiroki Ohara. Love Ikebana. Love to teach!
