How to apply

New Day Films welcomes new films and filmmakers into our co-op. Applications are accepted throughout the year. A curatorial team of New Day members reviews all submissions. Both the film AND the filmmaker are considered in the peer review process. Once we receive your submission, you will be notified of your status within 4-6 weeks.

If you are interested in learning more about New Day membership, the first step is to attend an informational webinar. These are run by our filmmakers every month, and last one hour. Sign up here.

Our Equity and Representation Team places a particular emphasis on supporting New Day members from underrepresented communities. Internal support includes a distribution mentorship system and an internally-supported fund that provides loans to assist new filmmakers with initial distributions costs.
