

Sehwatu Chapter Meeting 3/23/22

Troop reports

- 42: doing really well; just came off of Klondike and improved all their marks - everyone had a good time; 1 youth and 3 adults went to Spring Fellowship; 2 people doing their Ordeal at Beaver Days - encouraging more people to go
- BT58: doing very well continuing to hold in person meetings 2 people came to spring fellowship many came to complete
- 97: overall good; no activity in the OA; we had two members elected but one of them might not do Ordeal
- 186: recently had OA elections - 2 members elected; no younger scouts wanted to do Klondike; they have a good size pack; they have started meeting indoors and request that they wear masks; they have a camping trip this weekend
- GT58: Klondike went well; Spring Fellowship - they had 2 scouts and 2 adults attend; they have 9 scouts crossing over
- T19: Spring Fellowship - they had at least 20 people show up; 3 vigil nominations; they also had their OA election
- S19: Klondike station went well
- C19: in person meetings; position elections - 3 Jacks have a position "you can say that's all Jacked up"; made friendship bracelets; not scheduling an OA election

Election report

- We have had a total of 14 elections with 33 members elected so far
- Troop 323 election will be on the 29th; we have one youth spot open for that election team

Quartermaster reports

- Spring Fellowship - we made a profit of 50$
- We have socks - they are 10$ for a pair
- We have two sock options: yellow as the main color and black as the main color
- We sold 50 toboggans in a year; if we bought 100, it is expected to make our money back in two years
- 50/50 idea scrapped if cost is extra
- If we need more hats, that will be $45
- $114 sold at Spring Fellowship in memorabilia sales
- We have one neckerchief left - voted not to buy more
- We will think about t-shirts in the fall
