

Justice Decoded – Role cards

JUDGE

Your role: You open the court hearing. Don't let anyone misbehave. Listen to what the attorneys say. Listen to the jury's final decision. Based on all these, make your final verdict.

PLAINTIFF

Your role: You are the one who sued. Act according to your role (sad, upset, shocked, etc.). Remember, your behavior can influence the jury.

DEFENDANT

Your role: You are being sued. Act according to your role (sad, upset, shocked, etc.). Remember, your behavior can influence the jury.

DEFENDANT'S ATTORNEY

Your role: Your client is being sued. You need to come up with the right arguments to win the jury and win the case.

PLAINTIFF'S ATTORNEY

Your role: Your client is suing. You need to come up with the right arguments to win the jury and win the case.

JURY MEMBER

Your role: You need to listen carefully to both attorneys and watch the plaintiff's and the defendant's body language. At the end, you will have to have a discussion with the other jury members about the verdict.

JURY MEMBER

Your role: You need to listen carefully to both attorneys and watch the plaintiff's and the defendant's body language. At the end, you will have to have a discussion with the other jury members about the verdict.

JURY MEMBER

Your role: You need to listen carefully to both attorneys and watch the plaintiff's and the defendant's body language. At the end, you will have to have a discussion with the other jury members about the verdict.

JURY MEMBER

Your role: You need to listen carefully to both attorneys and watch the plaintiff's and the defendant's body language. At the end, you will have to have a discussion with the other jury members about the verdict.

JURY MEMBER

Your role: You need to listen carefully to both attorneys and watch the plaintiff's and the defendant's body language. At the end, you will have to have a discussion with the other jury members about the verdict.

POLICE OFFICER

Your role: You need to stop people from misbehaving. You can even take them out of the room if you wish.