Intro...

The first thing I would like to state that everything in this story is absolutely and 100% real, raw uncut and true.

No role playing fake fantasy crap either. The names of individuals have been changed to conceal identities...(somewhat) how ever the stories and accounts are real. If anyone wants a deeper explanation of any event please PM me in game and I'll be happy to tell you the real story. Thank you I love you enjoy.

Chapter 1: Who is CPC?

My name is CRZY_PSYCO_CHICK also known as CPC to many. I'm a Female player from New York City a really gritty city, its rough out here. I'm mixed black, rican and white 28 years of age with the caramel glow complexion. I have 2 college degrees in Computer networking so Im not a dumb bXTHC. I never grew up privileged or rich, but me and my family worked hard and made a decent living for ourselves. I started this game roughly 3 1/2 years ago out of pure coincidence and curiosity, Oh and because I loved the original game Uncharted Waters New Horizons for Snes

This game was revolutionary and I loved the graphics and how much fun the story was and how you can do literally anything in this game not just fight. This was about 10 years ago that I played it which shows just how much this game stuck in my mind.

So when my cousin told me they made a remake for this game I jumped for joy! I just had to try it and so that is how I started this game. Now mind you I dont fit the mold of the "typical" MMO gamer at all...well the mold of any gamer for that fact. I'm NOT a gamer and never was this is my first time ever playing a MMO in my life... This is also primarily the reason why I have had issues with certain individuals in this game.

Before This game I would party, drink, flirt, shop, work and just enjoy the beautiful night life of New York City. You guys have seen the show Sex in the City(Filmed in New York btw)...well it was like that! I brought the Sara Jessica Parker to UWO just with a twist >:D

To the people reading this if you never met a New Yorker before you may not understand me or the lifestyle. Well allow me to school you We are real people we tell you exactly how we feel and we dont care how you take it, there isn't alot of genuineness in GAMA but I will give it to you. New York is a huge city with millions of people everywhere and in order to stand out baby...you gotta show out! Cars, Clothes, Fashion, Parties, Pictures, Champagne, Making and Spending Money, Clubbing all are normal everyday life here which is why I carried it over into the game lol.

I love all the above and Im not ashamed who knows it, many others who play the game see it as superficiality I see it as home and they shouldn't judge me from what I have seen and experienced all my life.

Outside of just a lifestyle I'm a very kind person I try to help everyone I can and I'm a very patient with people. I often give to the people in need and always think of others before I do things those that know me personally... personally as in actually hung around me know this. Some people from outside my circle may say opposite but as I said they dont know me the real me and look at my lifestyle and prejudge. Now on the flip side I have a foul mouth I tell off people and Im not afraid to speak my mind if I feel strongly or if most people dont agree it gets me in trouble sometimes but I don't think I would be me or real if I didn't.

Sexuality. Sexuality is as much a part of human nature as any other part and I'm not and never will be afraid to talk about my sexuality ever. When God made women he was feeling real confident and feeling himself! lol. I like to flirt a bit its fun so what only people insecure in themselves would care. There are some men and women in the game that come from different cultures or very conservative backgrounds and this is off putting to some for obvious reasons understandable. However on the flip side those that run from or are afraid to explore their sexuality are often miserable and i don't want to live that way. End of the day EVERYONE was put on earth to be fruitful and multiply you were born with the parts to make it happen so get off the high horse and don't look down on people who are more comfortable with this truth.

Chapter 1 End

Chapter 2: Culture Shock

Wow I needed a whole chapter just for this. I would like to talk about the huge shock of adapting to this game. As stated in chapter 1 you all know how I am and how I was living in NYC so you might imagine...this might make some wavesssssss here in UWO lol. Now mind you I knew nothing of this game or any MMO's, trolling or even internet culture outside of the selfies posted but thats it so starting UWO was like stepping into the twilight zone literally.

The MMO world and the people are completely different than the real world. The first thing I noticed when I logged in was people were...mean and very sarcastic for no reason and with no provocation. I recall one incident when I first started where I asked a player dont remember the name if I could help with some quest or school or whatever. So i walk up and say hi my name is CPC nice to meet you can I get some help? He told me shouldn't I be cooking?

I was like ummm why should I be cooking? He said the only things girls can do in the game well is cook and sew... I was like oh no he didnt! I was shocked by this outright display of rudeness and sexism. Looking back in hindsight this event led me to do great things in the game later on I will get back to this in a later chapter

Now I mean people in NYC are rude too but only if you give them a reason we DON'T START trouble mainly because its wrong but the other reason is you could get beat up, stabbed or shot for saying something stupid like that. This is when it dawned on me UWO is a game where people can do and say whatever they want without any consequence of being physically harmed. WOW! This fact is the reason that a lot of people in this game say a lot of crap to other people that they would NEVER EVER say in real life. This world is like an outlet for them perhaps to do and be what they normally wouldn't be.

One thing I also noticed starting was that not a lot of people are social in real life. I mean I get being a home body thats cool but like I mean No contact with the real world. I'm not used to that i love to socialize and interact with people and I like being the life or at least a heartbeat of the party. A lot of folks have never lost their virginity, never been kissed, never held or been held by someone. Some never even date outside of this game ...this is mind boggling!

Now lets be fair does being intimate with someone else validate the person absolutely not unless...the reason you are alone or never date outside the game is because you are unappealing, rude, sarcastic, bullies and jerks in real life and get someone stupid enough to deal with it. I'm being honest here not everyone fits that mold but some of biggest bullies in the game do.

My first week playing I was told by someone that they love my heart and wanted to marry me when I refused he asked for my mailing address. Why the FXKC does he need that I asked? He said he wanted to send me gifts in the mail. Whoaaaaaaa easy there papi lol , you coming on kind of strong he then proceeded to call me names and call me a guy and evil!?!?! W T F is that how people do in this game? Guys try to talk to me in the street all the time and I never seen anyone get that bent out of shape like that!

Now for the girls of the game...Now I'm not talking about all the girls by no means but a good sum of the women here are very territorial and are used to being the center of attention. Contrary to belief I dont give a damn about this I just be myself and it usual happens who cares I don't ? But in UWO when a girl takes attention off of the other girls or the guy's attention off of them oooooo man got damn sparks fly! fights ,snarky remarks, band together to troll all the above its really crazy.

These small incidents were just a warning of what was to come in my tenure here in UWO but I will get to that later I want you guys to read and enjoy my story in its entirety. ^_~

Chapter 3: The Only Female 2x Back to Back World Land Battle Champion

Hmph let them tell it however they want and skew it and change it and manipulate it the fact will remain Im the Only Female 2x BACK TO BACK Land Battle Champion! And for an entire Year there was no equal. Im not saying this to brag but Im saying it because people lie and kiss soooo much booty because they did not want me to be champion. Of all the achievements in this game I ever did this is the one I'm most proud of and Land Battle always will hold a special place in my heart. Thats all good though I did what I had to do in the field, but I want to tell you how it all got started.

My Land Battle journey began in London I was so young so weak but I always like guns guns seemed so cool! Well guns appealed to me more because everybody and their mama was using a sword I just found it so boring that everyone just wants to stand around swinging swords all day ughh men so barbaric lol. Any who I bought myself a Matchlock rifle 8 attack and I saw a group of vets land battling and they asked me to fight them I told them I was only lvl 10 at the time they said no thats fine come duel I would be in a fleet with 4 other people, so it was a 5 v 2. It would be my first duel and I was really excited! I got my little rifle and went to work doing my little 2 points of damage lol. So they kill off my team and leave me for last and hit me which of course was a R3 Sword Tech completely 1 shotting me and embarrassing me. I had no intention of dueling I just did it for fun so no big deal, so I told them wow that was an awesome good fight and they replied to me... Noob, you suck, so weak, learn cooking and to quit land battle.

I just stood there like wow why are these jerks so mean to me names of these players was Pherle and ThirstenBark. I never cared for duels but at that moment I made it my business to get them back so i started a kill list lol. Yes a list of Jerk players that I would defeat in battle later on and those two were on it. This the origin of my land battle journey. I would go to any dungeon I could studied NPC patterns watched other duelists asks vets and still I could not hold my own with anyone. Then one day...

I met a player named requiem. Those that know requiem know she is a famous pirate she is the one that trained Nellemus on piracy but one thing people dont know about her was that she was a FANTASTIC Land Battler Swordsman to be exact. A testament to this was here beating people with a Sewing Broom yes that is correct a Sewing Broom! very embarrassing. She began to take a liking to me and my personality so she decided to be a mentor to me and basically taught me the ropes of land battle. We would dungeon together she would beat people who beat me up in Duels it was awesome lol.

My life changed when one day she was dueling someone and I saw here pull out throwing daggers but she did something very different than the usual dueling where you stand in one spot and just spam techs... No she was running around while throwing daggers while the other guy chased her. I thought that was the coolest thing I ever saw. She lost the duel and switch to her sword and obliterated the guy but that moment in time is what changed my life. I now knew what my fighting style was missing...the elusiveness.

Thank You Requiem ^ _ ^

Requiem quit the game so I was on my own and I began practicing the dueling style she displayed that day. I began practicing it in Dungeons in landing points in duels everywhere until I got better at it than even requiem. Duels I was still losing though I just didn't have the fire power guns were just too weak they didn't even have 100 atk weapons for guns. Well I met Yannibal by boo who finally pulled me the Musketeer job. Now I finally had max sniping gunfire and an elusive fighting style it was time to finally become a champion. I first went after those two people who dissed me when I first started. The Duels with them were so Easy I didn't even get hit lol. The funny thing is after my duels with them they said they would train to fight me ironic right?

Duel after Duel City after city 1 by 1 Victory after Victory people began begging me to fleet them they began getting people to fight me i was so flattered but I was fighting handicapped 35 atk carabine. Then something amazing i finally got my 100atk Breech Loading Rifle!

I got a gun soooooooooooooo big They call the cops ,the cops hang up and call the swat, the swat hang up and call the Ops, the Ops hang up and call Barrack! LOL

With such a weapon I participated in my first Land Battle tournament.

I was so nervous in the Grand Finals the guy was way higher level than me TheLandingFrenchmen was his name he hit so hard but he never fought someone like me before and just the unorthodox fighting style was just a bit much too much and after many gunshots I won. I never received my prize for winning the tournament I guess the holder didn't expect me to win but its what ever. I won!!!

I won I won I won!! First Female Champion! :D

Chapter 4: The Birth of Auctions and Migration to Seville

Ladies and gentlemen up until this point in the story the game was really light hearted nobody took themselves too seriously nobody was over top. However that all changed when auctions were introduced into the game. What started as a innocent good idea soon turned into what I called the very thing that made me and brought me the most trouble and stress. Well let's jump right into it and see what happened shall we?

Coming off of the Land Battle championship win many people knew who I was a directory word began to spread about me many people began asking me for tutoring and lessons and paying me to show them land battle. I made a decent amount of money decent amount of money doing this and of course dungeoning.

I thought to myself you know what this game is missing an Auction house so I suggested the idea to GM's, other players and company members and they all told me it couldn't be done nobody would trust me enough with their possessions. So I took my dungeon and land battle money and started investing in crafts and things to sell in auction. So I began shouting auctions in the streets of London and the following result was me being cursed out and yelled at lol.

Get the hell out of our town! We want London quiet! Take that crap to Seville... Take that crap to Seville well I think I will! So packed up got my stuff and shuffled over to Seville with ipod yes there was a player named ipod. Here is where we started the company The Elite Few we defected to Spain and began our new life in Seville. No love lost here I was cast out of London what was I supposed to do?

Auctions were originally free yes FREE I did not want to profit they were started to just add a cool feature to the game. Just one problem it caught on too much wayyyy too much. I ended up doing auctions 6 hours a day what? was I doing. I had a job in real life and a job in game it just was too much I told them I would quit. Now this is true they said that they wanted me to KEEP going but charge a percentage. This was the defining moment in my game it is where I went from being beloved by all to hated intensely by sizable group. I agreed to keep going and my fate was sealed and my game would never be the same again.

One thing to know about alot of players in this game is that once you do anything better than them they take it VERY personally like very personally to the point they would stoop to incredible lows to tear you down. This I'm guessing is because this fantasy world is the only place they matter and are bigger than themselves in real life and once you threaten that there will be HELL to pay. Next chapter will explain it all stay tuned.

Chapter 4 End

Chapter 5: The Price of Fame and Fortune...Cyber Bullying in UWO

Lets pick up right after I started charging ducats people for auctions. I saw a Meteoric rise in everything. When I say everything I mean everything I was making money money! I was auctioning making almost 1 billion to 4 billion PER night and everybody knew it. I'm a flashy person so I always had the multibillion dollar ships, the billion dollar outfits, giving money away on contests and promoting the server. It got so bad that I was actually TRYING to go broke and still couldn't do it! lol

My company The Elite Few slowly began to rise all way up to 5th place in Seville and for those know the competition in Seville for company spots then you would know this was NO easy feat. On top of this money I was making and company on the rise and everyone knowing me all over the world on top of all that I was the #1 duelist in the World at the time and people were begging me to teach them to fight and fleet with them. The game became down right addictive at this point so much good things were happening to me I couldn't be stopped guys! I felt as though I was on top of the mound just by what people were saying.

Then I began to notice a change in people like almost overnight. People began calling me rich and stuck up, they began saying I was killing the game, the began telling me I was a (ban me for language use) and a slut, They began to call me scammer and thief even though I NEVER stole from anyone. I was being targeted by very jealous individuals who ere none to pleased that a Land player like myself and a person who never bought astro was making all this money and they spent real money and were not even making half as much. They began heckling my auctions, banding together with other rolls to combine their harassment. Why?

To make me quit perhaps maybe stop auctioning who knows. Those that know me know that I dont take disrespect well especially if I feel I didn't deserve it. So I would fight back whether it would be a duel right in the middle of an auction or perhaps verbal altercation in world chat or getting personal with people and taking it to their personal lives as they did to me many times. I live by the sayings dont start nothing wont be nothing and Live by the Troll Die by the Troll.

These fights led to trolls spinning things to people looking in but not knowing the whole story and people are very gullible and impressionable began to believe the stories. Oh my god she fights with everyone she picks on us she is harassing us she is so conceited stuck up evil thief (ban me for language use), e slut urghhhhhh A holes! Now many people were still in support of me because they knew me before auctions and actually seen the unprovoked trolling so they stood by me but vicious trolls in UWO know no limits and will seek to hurt you at any cost. This is when ivyro happened

Those reading this now probably use the website ivyro for looking up game articles but what you probably don't know is that back in the day ivyro used to allow anonymous posting on the articles and this led to some of the most disgusting and constant cyber bullying of individuals I have ever seen. Some of these harassments include the following

 CRZY_PSYCO_CHICK 02-12-2014	People like ReaD who update this site with hundreds of articles get no recognition I really wish he would get more credit for the work he does
 Steward 02-12-2014	Crzy shut the f---k up! People like ReaD dont get any recognition because people like you take all the attention away from them because you are a chronic attention w---re. France won the ESF but nobod--- knew or cared because they were busy talking about CPC the ATTENTION W---RE!! Go F---k Yourself B---h!
 Francine 02-12-2014	Look like Cpc found the next d---k to suck cravens 02-12-2014	wow you people really are sad.... someone gives someone else a complement and all you guys can do is shoot them down and make fun of them. grow up people i mean really.

 Rashid 03-05-2014	F---k you Lena if you think being cocky is reason for Mortare, Khan_ , Reducerus and General Onox to put CPC's personal issues and real life name and location on a public website and saying horrible disgusting comments not just to CPC but everyone else in world chat as well then you're obviously a f---king idiot too and should be banned.
 Laurencio 03-05-2014	lena didnt say that Rashid. you did. people have their own legitimate reasons for hating her and they dont post her info. youre just as much as an idiot as those people you listed and as much an a---hole
 Carla 03-05-2014	Hey dumb f---k I saw the comments my self you are a stupid idiot who bviously can't read NO legitimate reason is enough to write comment like this especially over a game you f---ing r---rd and all of them should be banned: Mortare 03-04-2014 CPC IS a failure,prostitute, s---t, baby killer, lives in a s---ty apartment, you should do us all a favor and kill yourself. Reducerus(This comment was removed by the webmaster Kudos to web master) 03-03-2014 CPC is a disgusting human being who goes by the name "(Real name was put here)" and lives in (Location was put here) NY She a baby killer and s---t If thats how you think a game should be played go f---k yourself!!

you can read more ivyro comments about me here

<https://www.google.com/#q=cpc+site:uwodbmirror.ivyro.net>

Ivyro now requires logins to leave comments to trolls writing these things about me everyday. This just shows how terrible, pathetic, jealous and disgusting this community can be and all because of money. SMH
