

Storefront

Does the studio offer baby items such as bibs, blankets, etc?

No. Straylight Studio does not offer baby specific items.

Does the studio offer kids and toddler items?

We do not currently offer kids and toddler items on our storefront.

Does the studio offer tailoring?

No. The studio prefers to work in more specialized items and does not offer tailoring of any type through the store or by commission.

Are Borbs safe for infants and toddlers?

No. All of our Borb plushies feature bases with polypelets in them which can be a choking hazard for infants and young children.

Does Straylight Studio make items for pets?

No. Straylight Studio does not currently offer pet products of any kind.

Can I request an item for the store?

Sure! We're always open to requests and suggestions. Items that are requested or suggested may not end up in our shop. Items that are requested or suggested that do end up in our shop will be available to all potential customers.

Can I customize items I order from your shop?

No. Straylight Studio does not offer customization on store product. If you are interested in custom pieces check out our commission info!

Are hoodies and kigurumis ever available in your store?

On rare occasions, we will offer hoodies and kigurumis as premade items. They will have limited sizes and no customization options.

Are fursuits or fursuit pieces available in your store ever?

Much like hoodies and kigurumis, we will put fursuits and fursuit pieces up on our store front. They will be one off items.