

Have a song that reminds you of Joe?

Add it here, and we'll add it to a collaborative playlist for you (we'll play this on Saturday while we are sharing food and playing games):

I'll be adding some songs for everyone to play.

This is Jim Sweigert. I am working on my playlist. There are many songs, but I think that I will be done soon. 😊 If you need to see it soon, I can send it to you. I will probably add only two or three more songs. On July 25, 2026, I might not be able to be in CF, as I might be in Hungary at that time, spreading Ella's (my wife) ashes. If anyone wants to reach out to me, that is definitely okay with me.
