Dear Parent: Lincoln School has a Facebook page and a school web site that is published on the World Wide Web. Included are pictures of school activities and student work, but this slip needs to be signed prior to inclusion of your student. We will not publish a student's work or picture without your permission. Please select a choice from below and return to the school office. No student names will be used with pictures, only with their art or literature work. This permission slip will apply for the full school year and you have the right to change this information in writing at any time. Thank you for your prompt return of this slip.
