

*I am taller
I am smarter
I am more skilled
I've aged
My body and mind don't look the same
But have I grown?*

*I've lived more years than last year
I've seen more than things than yesterday
I've aged
But I don't think I've grown*

*I still feel young
Like a child
I still feel like that little girl
Who was trapped
Who did not know anything
And now that I have left
I find that I didn't grow
I only aged*
