

There we were at my uncle's house in Switzerland. The car that we had rented was a volkswagen highline 2019 it was a van we got one because there was six people in the car. It took six hours from Switzerland in a city called Basil to Germany Hanover. At first everything was normal I was reading my book we stop to get some gas. I go inside the gas station I went to wash my hands on a sign it says that you need to pay money it says that kids can go for free but the door was too small so I crotch but then I get stopped by an Oompie. Oompie had a small nunchuck and tried to act cool with it and knocks himself out. After that I was too scared to go and I forget to wash my hands. When we start driving I see mice eating a cat and I think that this is a weird trip. First I thought we were in a different dimension because everything was the opposite

I fall asleep and see everyone was swimming in a lake but when I look better at the lake there was crocodiles in the water I scream so loud that even the crocodiles run away from me we drive for one hour and then we were at the border between Switzerland and Germany there were more Oompies but this time they were holding mine tasers and red paint on their face. My mum thought they were cute but I scream in terror. Don't you think it is weird that small Oompa Loompas have tasers.

All the problems began at the border of Germany and Switzerland this girl was a Troll. Her hair was cotton candy but one of them does fancy French ones. She was checking the passports and was eating chewing gum and being a bit rude. My uncle gets mad and says something that I don't know, but my uncle calls this standing your ground. But then fifteen Oompa Loompas come out, this time they had guns the weapons were double the size of them I don't know what happened but this guy tried to do something and one of the guards shot a guy the bullet was whipped cream and then he shot again but the bullet was melted chocolate.

I get shot with a tranquilizer and then I wake up in a prison cell but it was full of games. I play some games and then this dude comes in side he looked like Nick Fury but with lighter skin he said that his name was Berlin but I suspect that was his code name. And he wasn't bald he says that I am test subject he said that they will try to turn me into the Oompa Loompas for a price of course. They take me into a room it was made out of titanium. There was a ray gun hanging down. A doctor gives me a cake I eat some then I fall asleep. When I wake up my skin color was purple I start screaming so loud that I destroy the doctor's ear drums I ask them where I am the doctor says Atlas headquarters Germany.

I see a blur and then the guards fall asleep and some soldiers appear and say that I have been captured by Atlas a private army and that Atlas is the world's largest standing army in the world and that they listen to no country. And they want to start world war 3 by turning all the shoulders into weak Oompa Loompas the soldiers leave in small pods. They told me that there's only one antidote and that they can duplicate it he said that I have to stay as an Oompa Loompa. So from a kid that plays Fortnite 24/7 I saved the world.

The end

Star 1: I like how you used Oompa Loompas for characters and that the storyline is really random.

Star 2: I think that it was really cool that you used lots of crazy items or characters and adjust them a little, then you put them in your story.

Wish: I wish that next time you would use better punctuation and spelling also some of the sentences don't make any sense.
