Dear, BigHit Entertainment,

We ARMYS fans of BTS noticed the Tipi in 'DYNAMITE COUNTDOWN LIVE' Which is culturally insensitive to Native Americans, It's our culture. We don't appreciate the use of it for your 'DYNAMITE COUNTDOWN LIVE' aesthetic/set design.

We understand that is is often use in videos and for aesthetic across the world, especially AMERICA but it is not acceptable, It's important to our culture.

We Native American ARMYS are asking for an apology to be issued about this matter.

— Truly, ARMYS.
