Each day, Stevens Security Officers help us maintain a safe and secure school. Stevens Security Officers are highly trained individuals who are often our school's first responders. These individuals deter bullying, horseplay, poor behavior, lead evacuations, work closely with local law enforcement and are constantly vigilant in their efforts to keep us safe. Further, they work hard to establish effective relationships with students and staff. Please show your appreciation to Rich Holt, Sara Geffre, Vincent Dalo, Ty Fankhauser, Lori Fankhauser and Greg McGaa by thanking them for their efforts.

ACTIVITIES

Are you interested in learning about Native American culture, language, and traditions? The Mitákuye Oyás'ïñ Club is forming at Stevens High School, and we want YOU to be part of it! Our mission is to help students learn about the culture, language, and traditions of the various tribes represented at Stevens. "Mitákuye Oyás'ïñ" means "All Are Related" - reflecting our inclusive spirit and interconnectedness. Meetings will begin October 1st from 7:35-8:15 and will be held every other Wednesday in room 224.

We're currently seeking our first officers (President, Vice President, Secretary). Interested students should:

Write a 500-word essay explaining why you'd like to be an officer and your leadership philosophy

Maintain at least a 2.7 GPA

Officers will be selected by a panel of educators

STUDENT SERVICES
