CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

Business Teacher

Are you passionate about preparing students for the real world while teaching through a faith-centered lens? We are seeking a Business Teacher who is eager to equip students with practical skills in business, finance, and entrepreneurship while supporting the mission of Catholic education.

About the Role

The Business Teacher will deliver engaging, relevant instruction in business-related coursework that helps students develop financial literacy, ethical decision-making, and career readiness. This role plays a key part in fostering academic excellence while integrating Catholic values into classroom instruction.

What You'll Do

- Teach courses such as Business, Personal Finance, Marketing, Accounting, or Entrepreneurship
- Create engaging lessons that connect real-world business concepts to ethical leadership and Catholic values
- Run our DECA program
- Support and mentor students in academic and career development
- Foster a positive, structured, and inclusive classroom environment
- Collaborate with colleagues and contribute to a strong school community

What We're Looking For

- Bachelor's degree in Business, Business Education, Finance, Marketing, or a related field
- Teaching license or ability to obtain licensure (per school/diocesan requirements)
- Commitment to the mission and values of Catholic education
- Strong communication skills and a passion for student success

Preferred Qualifications

- High school teaching experience
- Experience teaching business-related coursework
- Willingness to support or moderate business-related clubs or activities

Why Join Our School

- Mission-driven, faith-centered environment
- Supportive and collaborative faculty community

- Opportunity to make a lasting impact on students' academic and spiritual growth

Position Details
