

L3 Research Topic Ideas and starters:

Music in Sport: Looking at what music was used during training and warm ups to games and whether there were links to sport and aggression.

Fashion and Music: Can you tell what type of music a student listens to by what they wear?

Women Composers in Music in NZ: Is the path different for women to men? How has it changed in the last 100 years?

Music, Culture and Society: How strongly is music tied to class/culture? For example, is classical music just for Old rich people?

What part did music play in the American civil rights movement? Did it have any impact on how events rolled out?

Technology and Sexuality: how technology (music videos, access to the internet) has contributed to an openness towards sexuality, particularly heightened in the 90's through the introduction of MTV.

Mental Health in NZ + Music: how Music can be therapy for Mental Health in NZ.

The impact of music videos on body image

How have illegal music downloads impacted the music industry

How has the music of the Beatles influenced the development of popular music over the last 20 years

Impact of music choice on specific workouts

The effects of music on the mind: To what extent could it be considered a drug?

How has the digital music world affected turntabling?

How far has modern kapa haka moved from traditional forms of Māori music?

Is there any link between artistic ability and musicianship?