

PUBLISHER CATALOG DISPLAY INCLUDES 264 TAG

The staff catalog will now display the publisher data stored in either the 260 or the 264 MARC tag. Previously, the publisher did not display when the information was stored in the newer 264 MARC tag used for production, publication, distribution, manufacture, and copyright notice. Field 264 is useful for cases where the content standard or institutional policies make a distinction between functions

Publisher information from the 264 tag will now display in the following stock Evergreen views in the staff catalog:
