A summary of chapter 10-11

Tiger and Giant can see the neighbour watching the man with the mustache through a pair of binoculars. They are also surprised to see that Butcher obeys the neighbour totally as if Butcher was trained as a police dog.

Later in the evening Tiger's mother calls and tells Tiger that they are going to visit Tiger's grandparents the next day and that Giant can come with them. This makes Tiger very happy and excited. Tiger's mother also says that they have to be in bed by eleven o'clock.

Instead of trying the key at once they decide to have a pizza and play cards. When Tiger gets the deck of cards from her bedroom she sees the neighbour watching their house from his window. They start to play cards anyway and forget all about the neighbour, the vanman and the time.

When they go to bed Giant sees a flash of light outside. He looks out through the window and whispers to Tiger that there is somebody in the garden.

Giant can't fall asleep, he tries everything. Finally he wakes up Tiger to tell her that they have forgotten to try the key to the desk drawer. Tiger is too sleepy to go downstairs, but after a while Giant manages to wake her up.

They are thirsty and go downstairs to get something to drink and then they decide that it is time to find out if the key is the right one.

Giant goes upstairs to check so that Tiger's parents aren't coming, while they are in the study, but before that Tiger has to promise him not to try the key until he comes back.

When he comes back he is very upset and tells Tiger that the neighbour is standing outside in the garden watching them.

When they both are in the study Tiger unfortunately drops the key on the floor and when Giant finally finds it they hear a sound from the backdoor. Someone must have found their extra key and is now entering the house. Tiger and Giant hide under the desk. Tiger still has the key to the desk drawer in her hand when somebody enters the study.

Who is it? Oh no, it can't be him. But yes, it is!

It is the vanman...
