

Please read through these terms and contact me if you have questions about this PRIOR to buying from me or requested custom work. Make Sure to leave a digital signature and click agreed to these Terms Of Service. (disregard signature if sent and discussed to you in DM's)

You must give proper credit to me and not remove my labels off of the things I made for you! It is like removing my autograph of artwork!

> If the label is removed you are not able to return to me for repair work.

> I never consent for my (art) work to be used in AI training

> I will post your work online or have it in my gallery to use if I would like too.

If no communication is received within two weeks of asking and

If I do not get a response I will assume you have lost interest and cancel the commission, so please reach out if something happens so we could talk further, Life happens.

Once started on a commission (past sketch phase or materials ordered) I will only be able to give a 50% refund.

You should expect a commission update after starting, at least once a week.

If I haven't gotten back to you and it's been the week past feel free to message me about the commission. DO NOT SPAM ME. I am working on things I don't always have the time to chat :o(.

I will only alter a sketch 3 times before a 5$ charge is added. When it comes to physical items if I get approved to go further I may not be able to offer a change afterwards depending on what it is but if I am able to change it I will need compensation for said time with an extra fee and the project taking longer than expected.

If your item is shipped, I do not refund!

If anything happens while shipping please contact me so we can come to an agreement of what steps to take next. Once it's in the hands of the post office it's no longer in my control. I will however offer an air tag as an option but will be extra.

Quotes will be made to the best of my ability before I start on anything custom, and I will get in contact if things end up cheaper or in some cases more expensive!

Prices are rising everywhere and that sadly has to be pushed through with me too.

I will not ship the item till it is paid off completely!

Payment plans can be discussed but will not be more than 3 months!

I will not create 1-1 things from other makers, you can send me pictures to give me an idea but these will be references, not reproduction images!

You can always shoot me a message if something breaks so we can see if I can repair it for you!

You must be comfortable with giving your address/name etc. So I can send your item to you!

By commissioning or buying any of my products, you agree to these terms!
