Dear [write the name of the recipient],

I'm here to apply for the position of Maintenance Worker at [mention the name of the company]. I am a qualified craftsman with over [number] years of expertise in many types of upkeep and maintenance. In my current position as a Maintenance Man with the [mention the name of the company], I am responsible for a variety of maintenance tasks, ranging from routine maintenance to equipment repair.

I'm a master of all crafts who can fix just about anything. Furthermore, I am a fast learner who can rapidly learn skills and routines. Above all, I am proud of my hard work ethic and professionalism in all I do. I've always been lauded for getting things done quickly. I'd appreciate the opportunity to apply my talents as a Maintenance Man at your site.

When I'm given a new tool, it just takes me a few mins to find out how to use it. When I disassemble a device, I seem to have a photographic recollection of where each component goes so that I can reassemble it correctly. I am self-motivated and willing to work beyond hours to overcome difficult task.

Really, I am certain that I am an excellent candidate for this position, and that my qualifications must exceed your requirements. Please contact me as soon as possible to arrange a face-to-face interview. I eagerly await your response and appreciate your time.

Thank you so much,
