

PFC William G. Jungwirth

Location - West-A: R5, C45

William G. Jungwirth is with the air corps, stationed at Tucson, Ariz.

William Jungwirth

WIS. RAPIDS — William (Bill) Jungwirth, 61, 2931 9th St. S., died at 4:10 a.m. Friday, April 8, 1988, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Marshfield, where he had been admitted the day before.

There will be no services. The body will be cremated.

Jungwirth was born June 25, 1926, in Oshkosh, to Frank and Viola Jungwirth. He married Hazel Hefty June 14, 1947, in Oshkosh.

He came to this area in 1953, and was owner of Wilbern's Restaurant and Motel.

He served with the U.S. Air Force during World War II.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Gary and Thomas, and two daughters, Judy Knoll and Jolene Ostrowski, all of Wisconsin Rapids; a brother, James, Oshkosh; and seven grandchildren. He was predeceased by his father, mother and stepmother.

Pvt. William G. Jungwirth, son of Frank Jungwirth, 616 South Park avenue, is undergoing a series of examinations at Keesler Field, Miss., to determine his qualifications as a preaviation cadet.

