

Bryn Littlewood

Bryn Littlewood has been a part of the Eurhythmics dance family since 2004 and has been teaching since graduating. She currently instructs Acro, Ballet, Lyrical, Contemporary, and Jazz. Her passion for working with children and sharing the art of dance began early, leading her to join the assistant teaching program in high school. Since then, she has grown into a dedicated and enthusiastic educator who values technique, creativity, and connection in the classroom.

Bryn is certified in Acrobatic Arts, Progressing Ballet Technique (PBT), and holds her Early Childhood Educator certification. She brings a strong foundation in multiple styles and a deep understanding of child development to her teaching. Bryn is excited to continue inspiring dancers and helping them grow in both skill and confidence.
