

Grammar Test. Form 8.

Passive Voice / Causative Constructions.

1. Divide constructions into two parts. Write out the numbers of the sentences in Passive Voice and in Causative Constructions.

1. We had our house repaired last summer. 2. The roof was repaired and the windows were replaced. 3. We had the floors painted. 4. We had walls wallpapered. 5. An alarm system was installed. 6. We had all rooms redecorated. 7. Next summer we will have the garden tided up. 8. Some new fruit trees will be planted. 9. A new shed will be built. 10. We will have the fence restored and painted. 11. We will have old trees neatly trimmed. 12. Flowers will be bought in the nearest market. 13. We have the environment changed every year. 14. A lot of changes are done. 15. A lot of money is spent. 16. A lot of materials are used. 17. We have new benches designed. 18. Some workers are hired every summer. 19. We have many changes done.

2. Put the verb in Passive Voice.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1. We often read texts at the lessons.  | 6. He is reading a funny text now.       |
| 2. They read this text yesterday.       | 7. We will read the text tomorrow.       |
| 3. We can read the text easily.         | 8. He has already read the text.         |
| 4. They were reading it at that time.   | 9. You must read it.                     |
| 5. They had read the text by that time. | 10. They will have read it by that time. |

3. Put the verbs in Causative Constructions.

1. She will go to the hairdresser's. (hair/cut)
2. The man was sitting in the garage. (car/repair)
3. He went to the dentist. (tooth/pull out)
4. The boy regularly goes to the doctor. (eyes/check)
5. She is waiting in the yard. (car/fix)

4. Change the sentences into Causative Constructions.

Every year our car is repaired. The engine is examined. Now the brakes are being checked. They were checked a month ago. The brakes had been checked before we went on holidays. The front window has just been replaced. An alarm system will be installed next week.

5. Change the sentences into Passive Voice.

Sally will have her image changed. She will have her hair dyed. She has already had her teeth straightened. She has had her nails done. She is having her hair cut now. She will have it curled then. She had her teeth whitened yesterday. She will have her make up done in the afternoon. Her friends will not recognize her.

