

Minister of Music Job Description

If you are passionate about music and want to share it with others, and you enjoy attending church, apply for the Minister of Music position at Trinity Collegiate Church of North Plainfield. We are a small and growing local church in the Reformed Church In America, New Brunswick Classis.

Church is one of the few places where people can sing together, so the minister of music's selections need to include a variety of music styles: from gospel to pop, contemporary to classical, local to international. It is important to reach the entire congregation by infusing different styles, rhythms, and sounds of music.

The Minister of Music will:

- Lead the church music ministry in a way that will inspire and enhance congregational worship and fellowship, while engaging multiple age levels in a variety of music experiences and education.
- Promote music as an important part of meaningful corporate and personal worship and spiritual growth.
- Possess musical skills that include the ability to play multiple instruments, including piano or organ, lead choirs/ensembles, and develop a children's choir.
- Select arrangements for Sunday worship, rehearse the voice and instrumental ensembles of the church, and direct musical presentations as part of the worship and evangelical offerings of the church.
- Collaborate with the Minister(s) of Word and Sacrament to ensure that music is aligned with sermon and worship message.
- Collaborate with ministries of the church to host music events, including holiday concerts for children and adults, performances and recitals, and outreach events in the community.

Minister of Music Education Requirements:

Preference will be given to candidates with a post-secondary degree in music, or coursework in music theory.

Salary:

The Minister of Music is a part-time position, not to exceed 20 hours per week. Competitive salary is commensurate with experience.

Please contact Rev. Ursula Cargill, Ph.D. or Rev Scott Harris, M.Div.

Office: 908-756-2125

Email: trinitychurch401@gmail.com