

The Truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

This document was created by "Rushio", also known as "Not Rushio" on discord.

If you have any questions, please DM me, Rushio, at "rushiolco" on discord. I will be accepting messages.

I will not be going over the video. I will say the captions are wrong half the time. You can tell just by listening who is who in the beginning.

Clearly, you all have been fed information and gathered it all up with 0 context and posted it for people to see. Little ridiculous, isn't it? In the United States, when you are charged with a crime, you are shown the evidence. Were we? No. Whenever we asked Moderators, we were told to wait. This is why this document is coming out so late. I'm sure your opinion on people like Me, TheThinkingRoom, Towngos and more would be pretty shattered. I don't blame you. However, allow this document to show you the truth behind our allegations.

I want to thank the discord moderator known as "Spelunker" for relaying accurate and timely information regarding our bans. He did not block me, unlike the moderator who banned us, RecklessHAVOK. I sent him a friend request to explain, and he denied it. He also has his messages off for recipients that don't share servers with him. Seems like he doesn't want to talk to the accused, huh? Also, RMH did not disclose any information about why we were being specifically banned. They wanted to make a document and video first, then allow us to explain. So, they came up with excuses relating to banning information, such as "soon", or "in a while". This was just to buy time for the document and video to come out. Thanks, RMH! Also, thank you "nut_eco", a RMH moderator who helped explain some of my points.

All of this information was supposed to be private (given, a moderator of RMH told me) but sinsorr decided to release it publicly. Thanks for that, man.

(If I say things such as "I", I am referring to Rushio. If I say "He", I am referring to previous mentioned names. If I say "she", I am most likely referring to MrsAmnesiary. If I say "GC, VC, or Call", I am referring to the group chat. We were on a call in the group chat. When I say "we", I am referring to people in the group chat, like myself, towngos, kingheart, thethinkingroom, and others. You've already seen the document, I don't have to explain.)

Let's start with some history, shall we? I know for a fact nobody knows this. I will summarize everything at the end of this section.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Since this is written by me, Rushio, most of the context will be relating to things I've experienced, seen, heard, and did.

I should mention, anything 5alks, 5alware, or "49" mentioned is related to the user 5alks/5alware. He is a known and proven terrible person, but RMH and POM have moved past it, and accepted him in open arms. If you don't believe me, look at his description on the Myth Community Wiki. In no form does it mention his more in-depth controversies. Rather, often blaming his mistakes on other people, and even calling him a hero. (Kinda)

Here's the link: <https://mythcommunity.fandom.com/wiki/5alware>

Mind you, he tried to fly a minor out to his house. So, of course we are going to talk about him and his address.

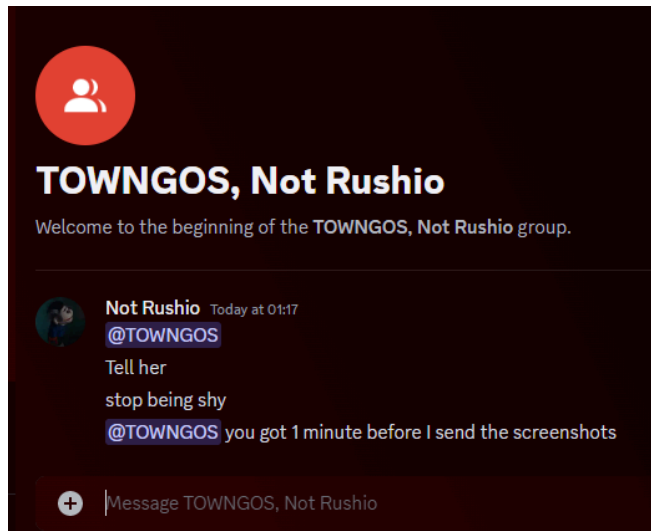

The day we created the group chat, it was originally created for development in Deiform. However the myth group "Mythin` it" was hosting a party for their new game. So, the groupchat centered around that, and we invited non-developers like Towngos, Kingheart, and Damaxia. After the party ended, we were still on call, and the topic shifted to myths. I, who am/was friends with MrsAmnesiary, brought her up.

This is her roblox profile: <https://www.roblox.com/users/475544027/profile>

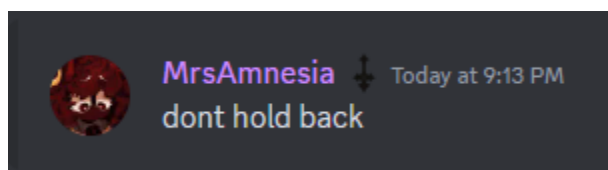

When I did, I was mainly speaking to Towngos. I wanted to invite him to the discord, since he seemed interested. I mentioned she was an artist, so he searched her up. He found her on Rule34, so he posted 2 screenshots he found. Keep in mind, nobody knows she's 17. Yes, it's in her bio, but they've never spoken to her. Only me. And I've only had around 2 conversations with her, and am not very active on her server. I discovered this after she had banned us, and I was gathering information. KingHeart responds inappropriately to the images, amongst other things in the group chat.

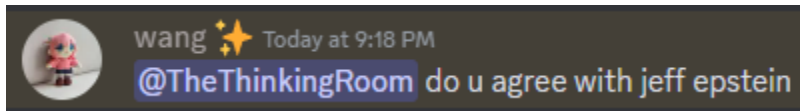

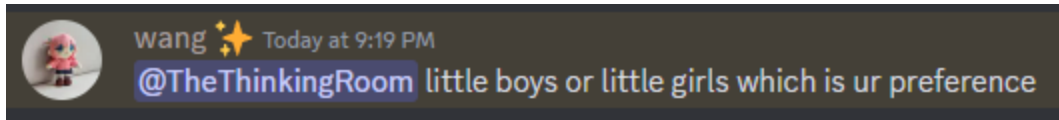

Any art relating to MrsAmnesiary I posted was her's and because SHE'S AN ARTIST. I posted it for towngos, my original recipient, to see. Anyways, to verify in MrsAmnesiary's server, you have to dm moderators of the server. I sent the link in the group chat for Towngos. Yes, I could have known others would join. I did too. Did I know they would annoy the moderators? I found out! I said multiple times in the call to stop messaging the moderators. One person, Borger, or "Kalliced" was messaging MrsAmnesiary over and over, and providing her screenshots from the group chat. I told him to stop, he was not listening. To be clear, I know MrsAmnesiary, and did not want to hurt my image with her (I'll get back to this). Throughout everything, I have not once insulted her, sent R34 pictures of her, or anything of that nature. She was simply given evidence with no context. I do blame her for other things, such as targeting her moderators at my boss, TheThinkingRoom (I'll get back to this).

I created a group chat with MrsAmnesiary and Towngos to talk. That was my original goal. I was going to send the R34 regardless since, well, it's R34. It's my responsibility to make sure that the people I invite are not terrible. So, I was going to send her the R34 regardless. I made that claim in the screenshot below so they would talk.

Towngos just said hi and hello in that screenshot later on. He never sent anything inappropriate to her of my knowledge. After this group chat was created, the moderators (from MrsAmnesiary's server) banned me, along with others in the ORIGINAL group chat from MrsAmnesiary's server. She was shown photos by Borger, who've I have said earlier is Kalliced. Then, her moderators being angry that people dmed them asking for verification (which is the whole point of verifying) berated TheThinkingRoom and called him a pedophile. Screenshots below are some things the MrsAmnesiary moderators were saying in the server to and about TheThinkingRoom. MrsAmnesiary even encouraged it.

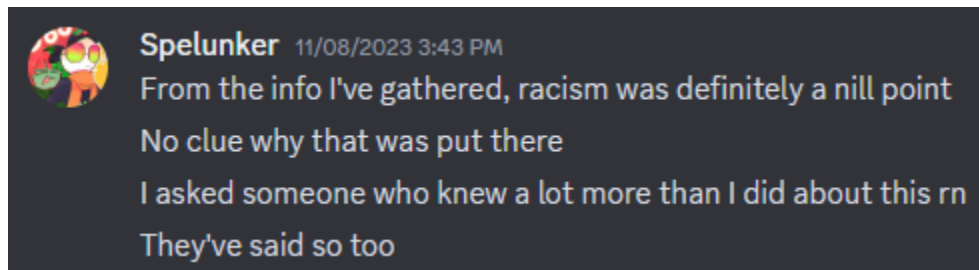

They even made a rule the day of, to not be named Rushio. Keep in mind, at the time I had done nothing really.

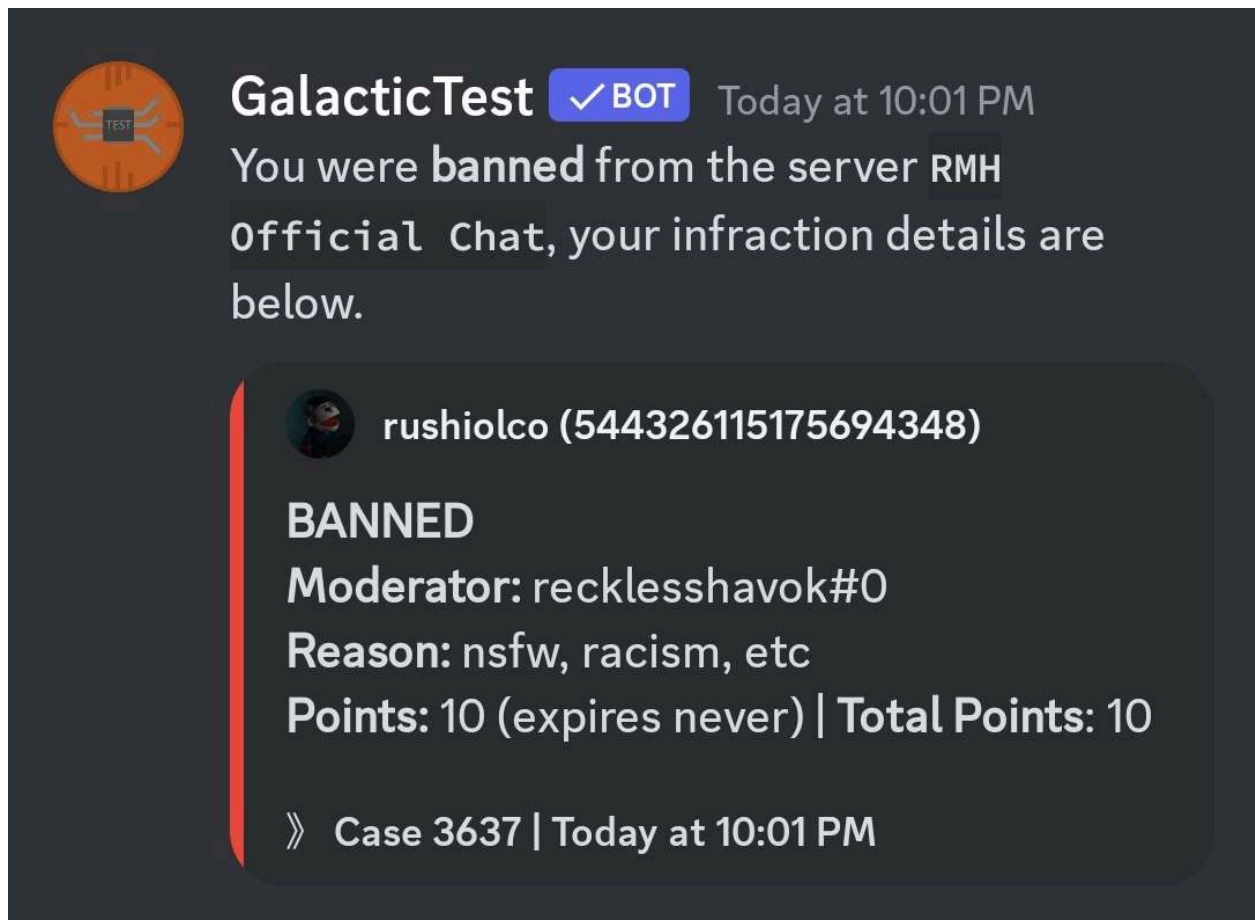

(Also, rule 13, keep drama in dms? The moderators did not follow that rule. Same with rule 11.)

During all of this, sinsorr was relaying information. He was muted in call, and never stepped in to stop anything. Anyways, shortly after being banned from MrsAmnesiary's server (all of us being banned), we were banned from RMH and other servers like the Myth Community Wiki. The ban reasons were all the same, and we're all done by the mod "Recklesshavok". (At least for RMH). The screenshot below is the ban reason. Mind you, half of it is false. It is even confirmed by moderators saying the “Racism” claim is false.

(A moderator from RMH.)

This was the same ban in servers like RMD, and it was the same ban for me, towngos, thethinkingroom, and domoxia. Most likely others in the group chat.

Let's summarize. In a group chat originally made for development, members got sidetracked. Rushio wanted to invite Towngos to a myth group owned by MrsAmnesiary.

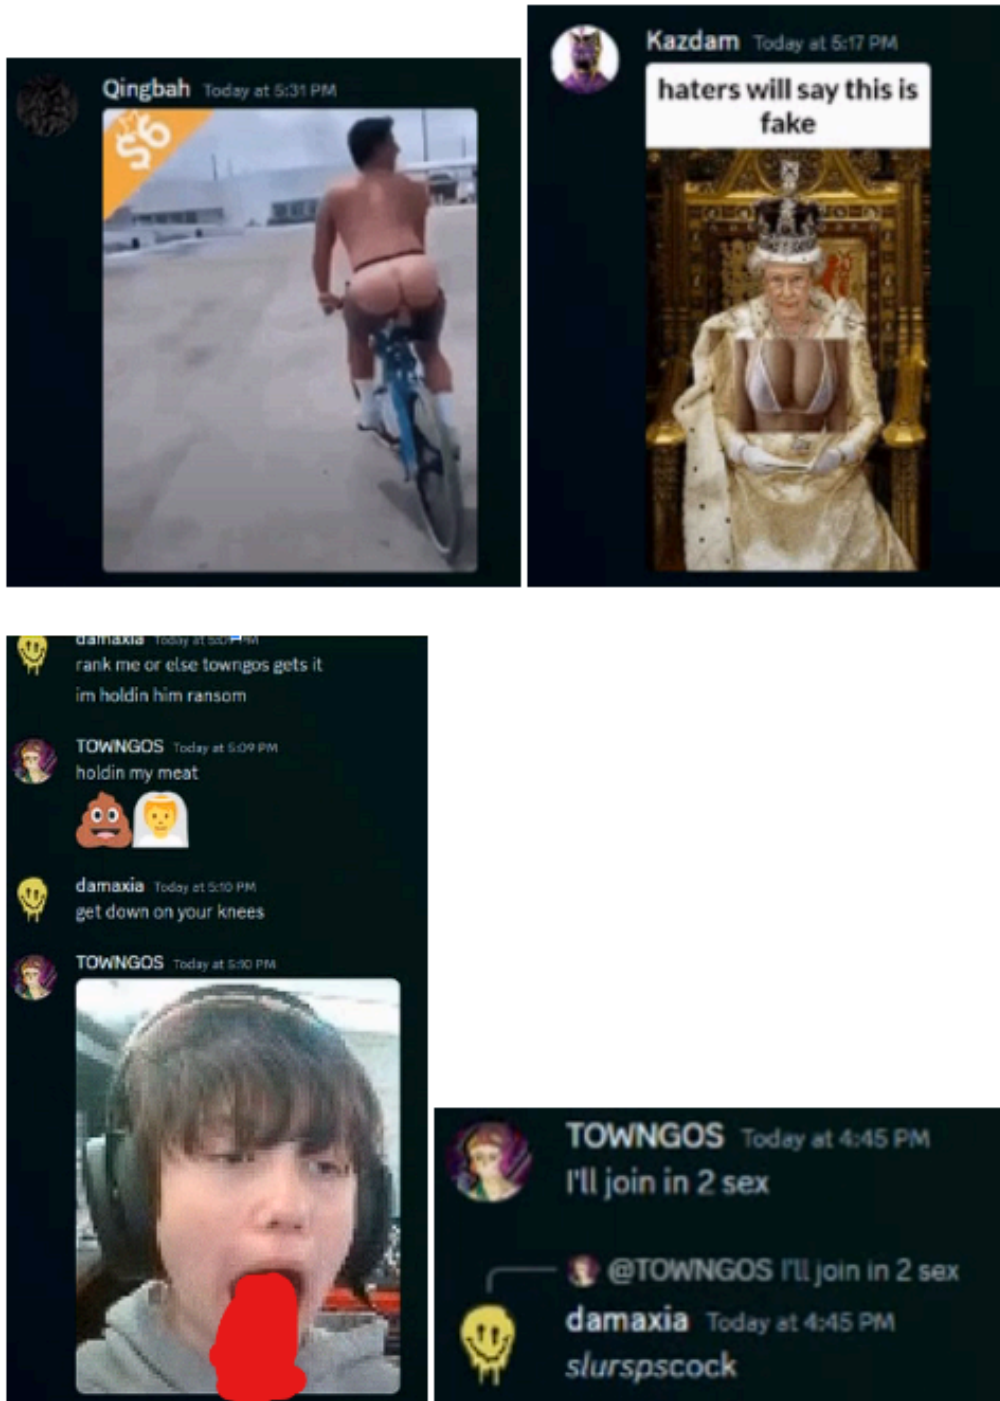

Towngos searched her up since he didn't know her, and posted images he found of her. (Rule 34). KingHeart responds inappropriately while in the group chat. The link to MrsAmnesiary's discord server was posted in the group chat, so members besides Towngos (the original recipient) joined. To join, you must dm moderators to verify. Members of the group chat dmed the moderators. Kalliced, or borger, sent MrsAmnesiary information in the group chat. So, with this information, and complaints about dms from her moderators, she banned everyone from the group chat besides TheThinkingRoom. She then had her moderators berate and insult TheThinkingRoom, and ask him inappropriate questions. Then, banning him. Afterwards, they relayed this information to RMH. Keep in mind, no context or rebuttal from anyone in the group chat was given. Just screenshots and information with no context. So, members of the group chat were banned from RMH without ANYONE looking into it.

So now you know the backstory. Now, let's get into the explanations of the screenshots. I will be going over EVERY SINGLE ONE and additional information. This will not be biased, just providing more context from someone who was actually there.

EXPLANATIONS

Let's start from the first screenshot.

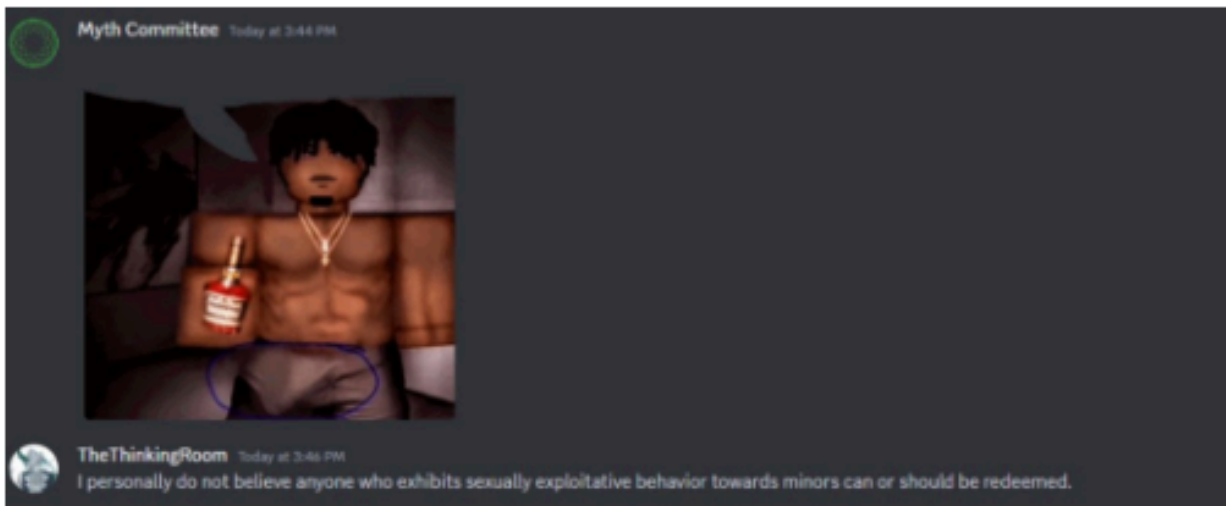

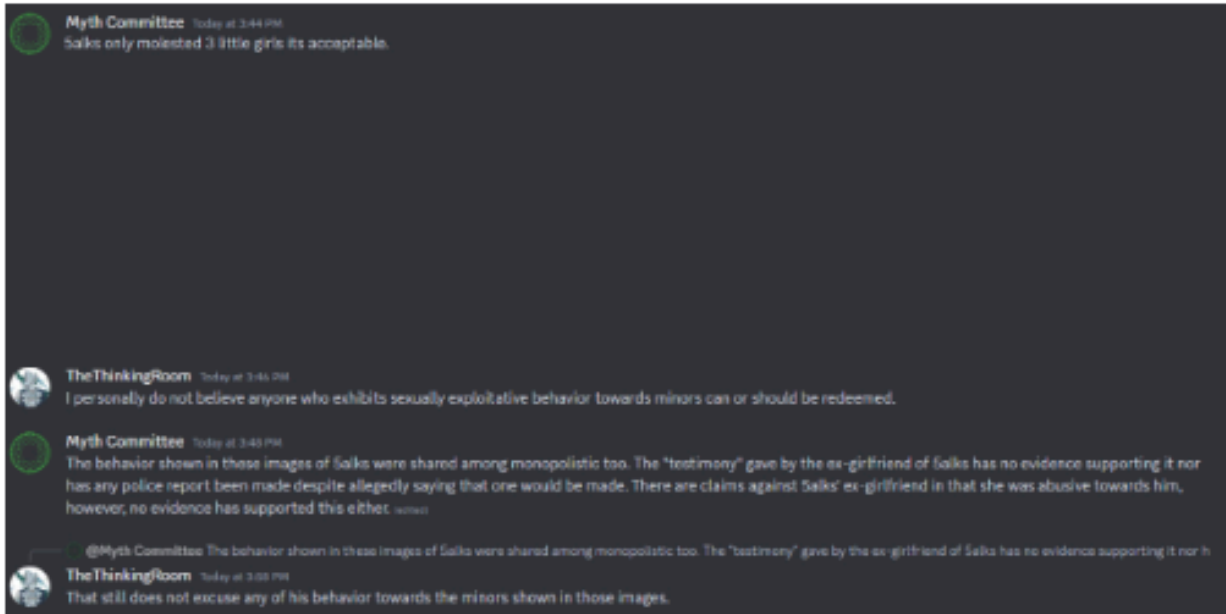

NSFW stuff sent in the group chat before I was added:

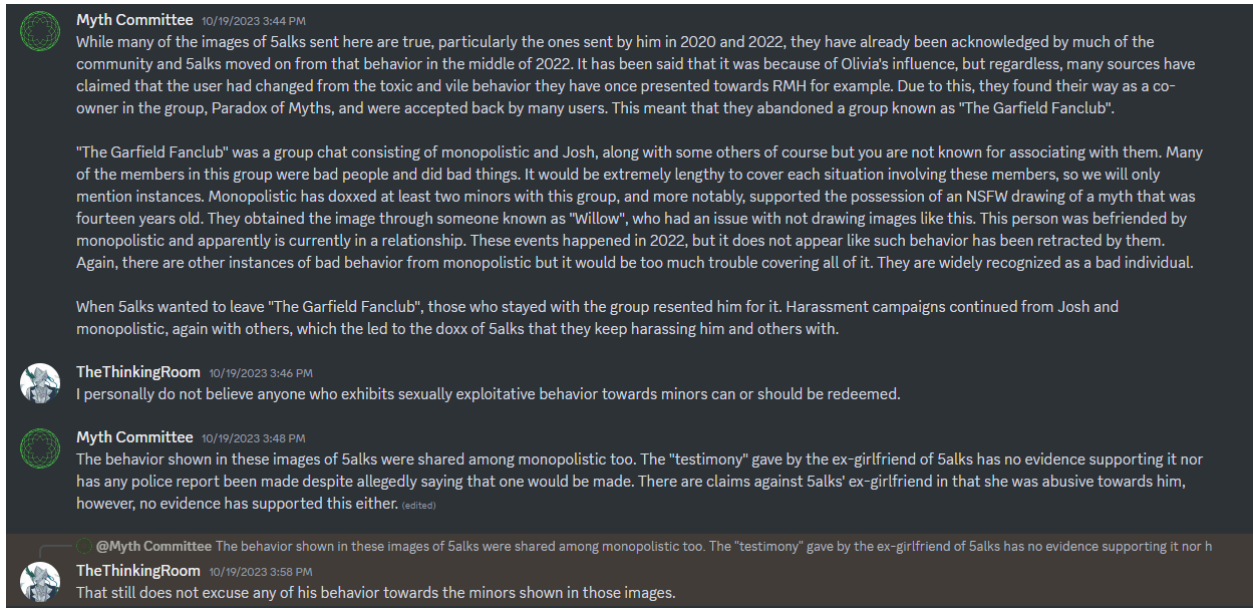

(This is pretty self explanatory. It's a joke. We are teenagers, of course we are going to talk about things like butts, boobs, and sex. None of this was directed at anyone but to each other.)

MythCommittee's conversation with TheThinkingRoom regarding 5alks:

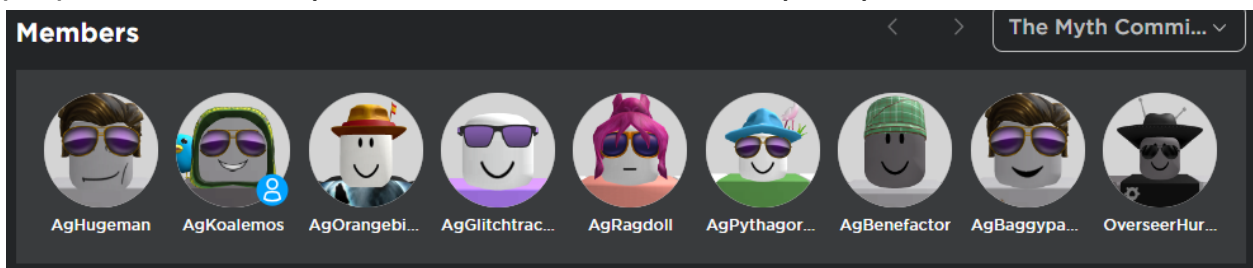

When I joined the VC with them, they were talking about DMs between TheThinkingRoom and MythCommittee (Discord account used to allow individuals to contact the RMH Myth Committee, which handles myth rank applications). They were making jokes of what MythCommittee said as well as photoshopping messages. Here are some of the messages they photoshopped:

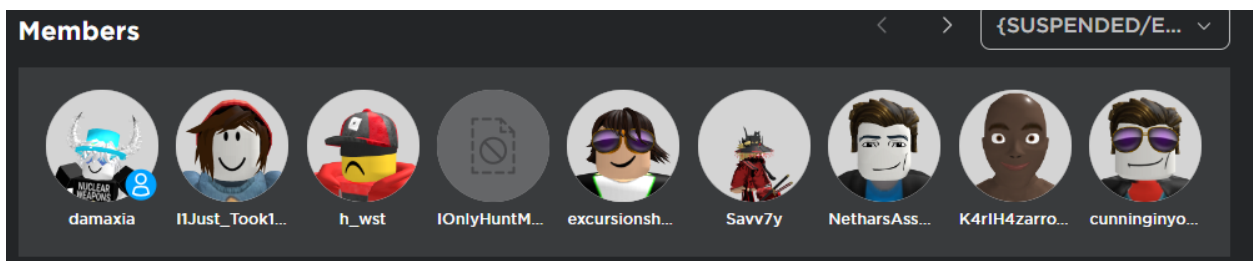

(The reason we were discussing this in the group chat was because it was 1, it's a joke, and 2, funny. If you read the actual message, which I will post below, they basically say that (RMH Myth Committee) forgive 5alks. A very weird individual. So we edited the screenshots.)

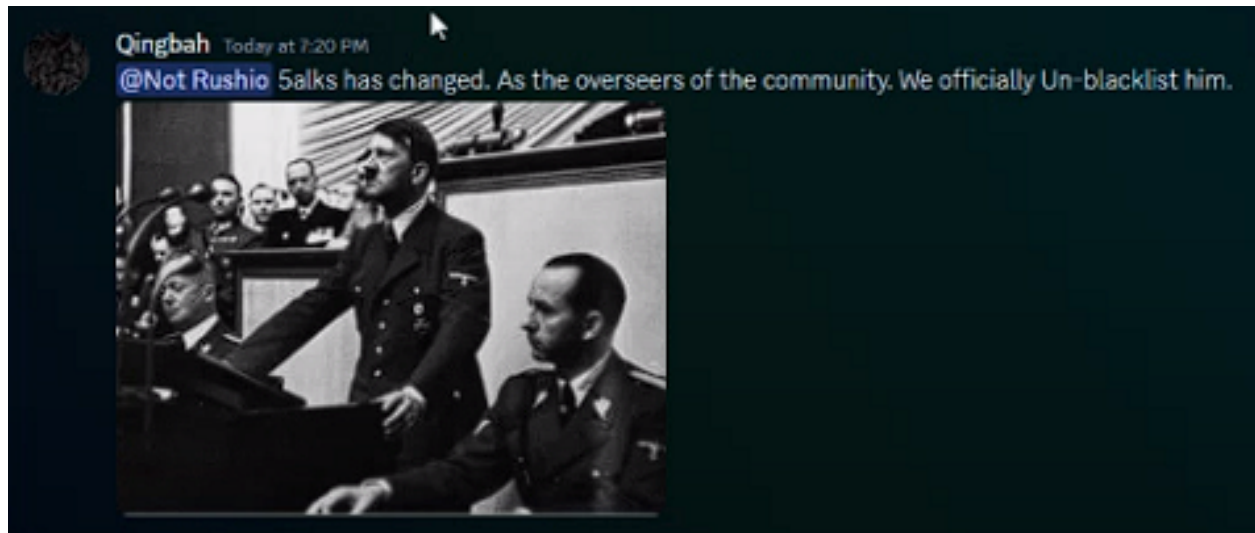

(This is the original screenshot, read. You'll see what I mean. They also shift blame to "monopolistic" to cover for 5alks. Also, the account(s) behind "Myth Committee" on their roblox group are a bunch of random accounts. They keep it private so nobody can say anything bad about the Myth Committee defending 5alks. Below are the supposed people who run the Myth Committee account. Obviously, they aren't real accounts.)

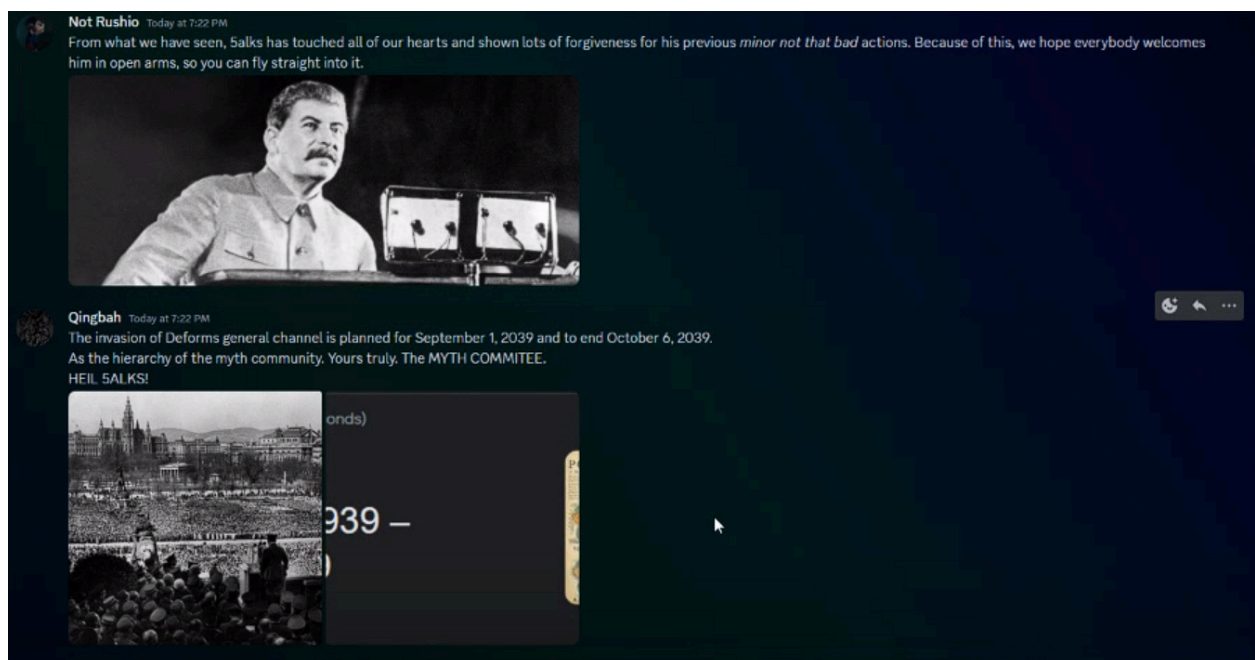

(I should also mention, when you are banned from RMH, they don't remove you from the group. Instead, they give you the role "EXILED" to basically show others you are shit people. Which, in most cases, they are right about.)

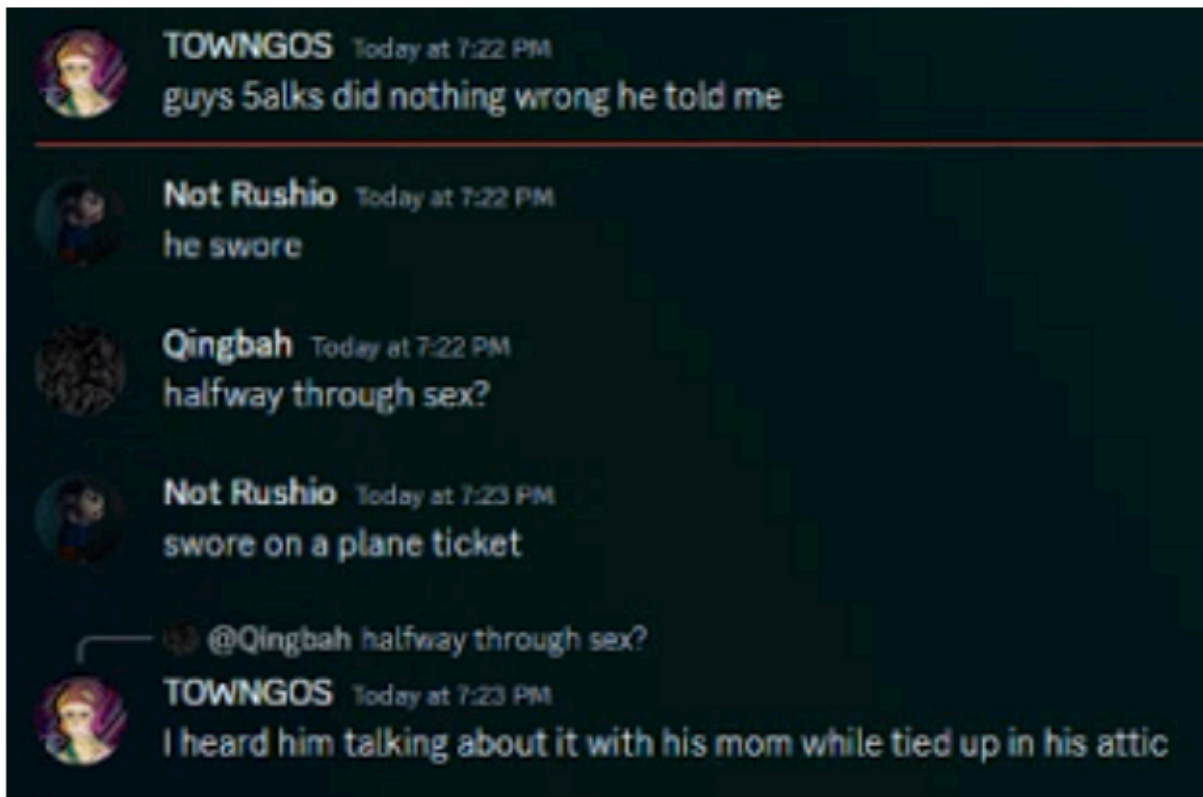

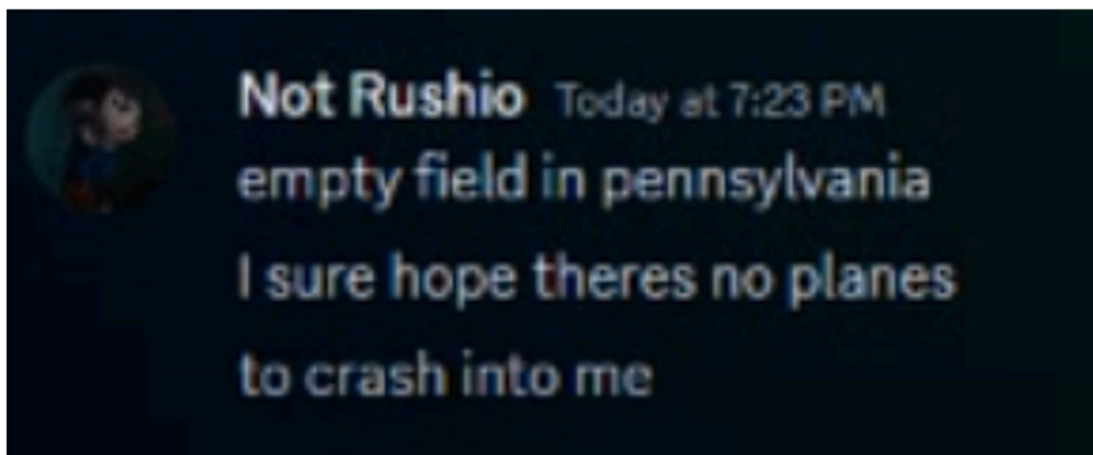

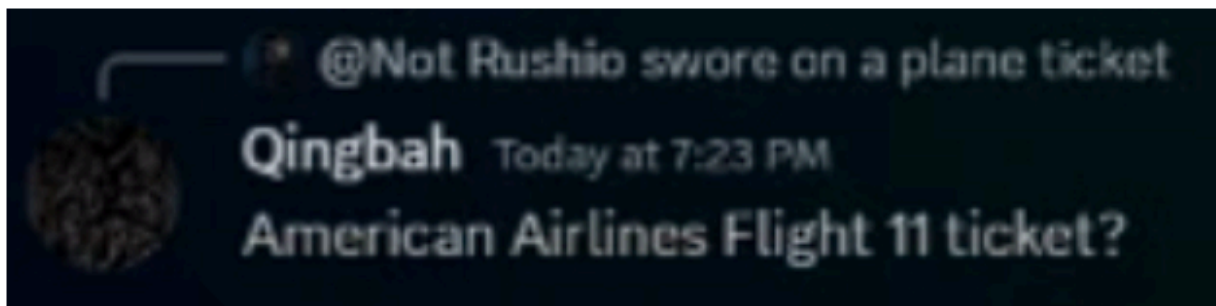

(This is KingHeart making fun of how RMH was like Germany/Nazis in the 40s. To explain the joke simply: “They use their power to alleviate blame, and show others how the mods, who are trusted, forgive a weird individual. This way, members also forgive 5alks.” Just like how the Nazi’s used their power to make the German Population shift Germany’s previous WW1 loss on the Jewish. No, I’m not defending the joke. I’m explaining it. Still, doesn’t make it acceptable.)

(This is me basically copying what KingHeart said, but using another dictator, Joseph Stalin. Again, making fun of the Myth Committee for defending 5alks. I said “fly straight to him” relating to the fact that he tried to fly a minor to his home. KingHeart responded again.)

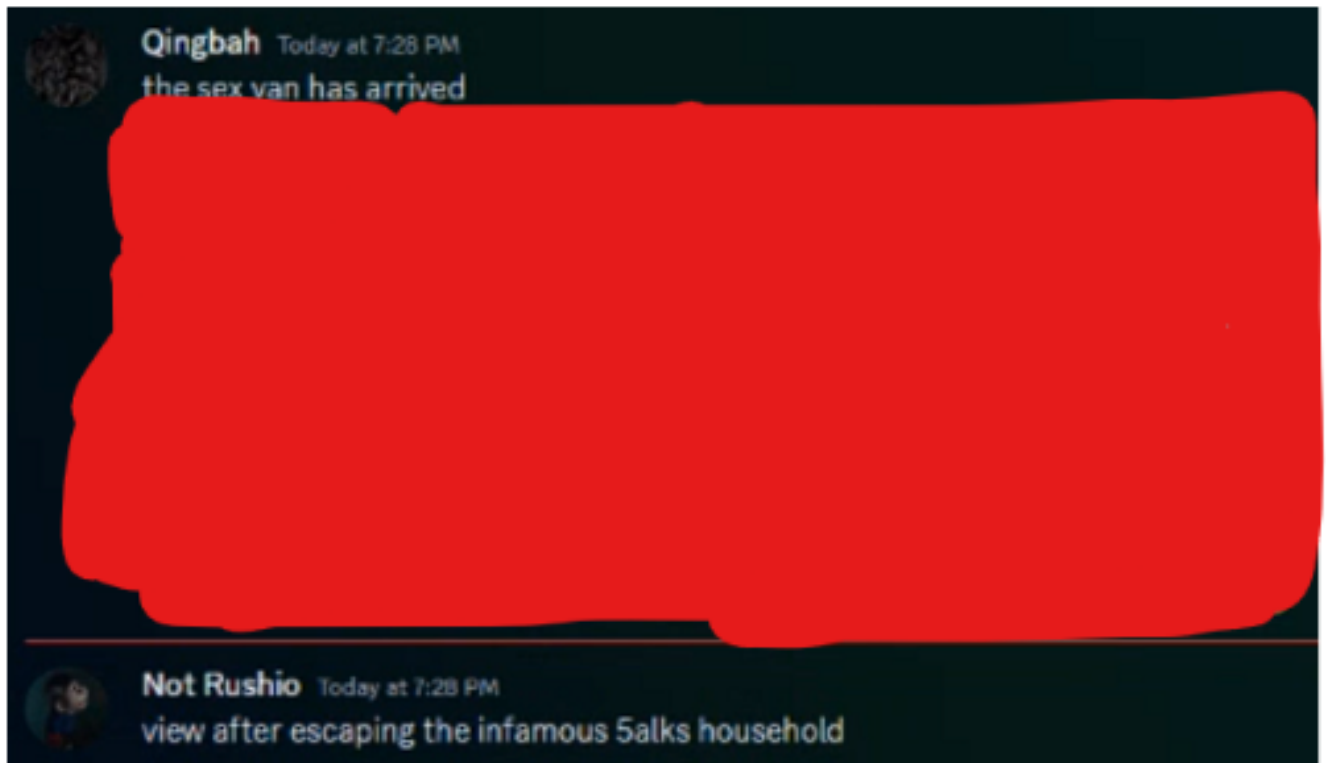

(This is us making fun of 5alks again. Who I will remind you, for the 103th time, is a known and proven weird individual.)

(This is KingHeart relating the plane message I sent about 5alks to 9/11. I responded with something 9/11 related. Remind you, I am American. I am also a teenager. You could also say it's dark humor. The joke wasn't intended to be solely about 9/11, rather 5alks. I just so happened to twist my words around it, relating to what king heart said.)

Referencing 5alks' personal info/address:

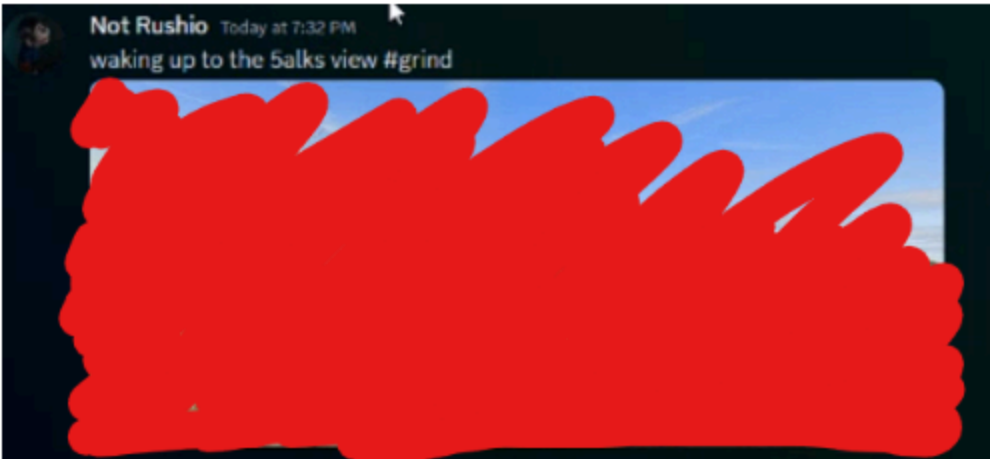

(referring to a van driving down the road at/near 5alks' address)

(The photo, which is crossed out, is a photo of a van driving down the street next to 5alks supposed house.)

(This image I sent is Georgia with “49” listed. It’s part of 5alk’s address. It’s also a highway. So, it’s very broad.)

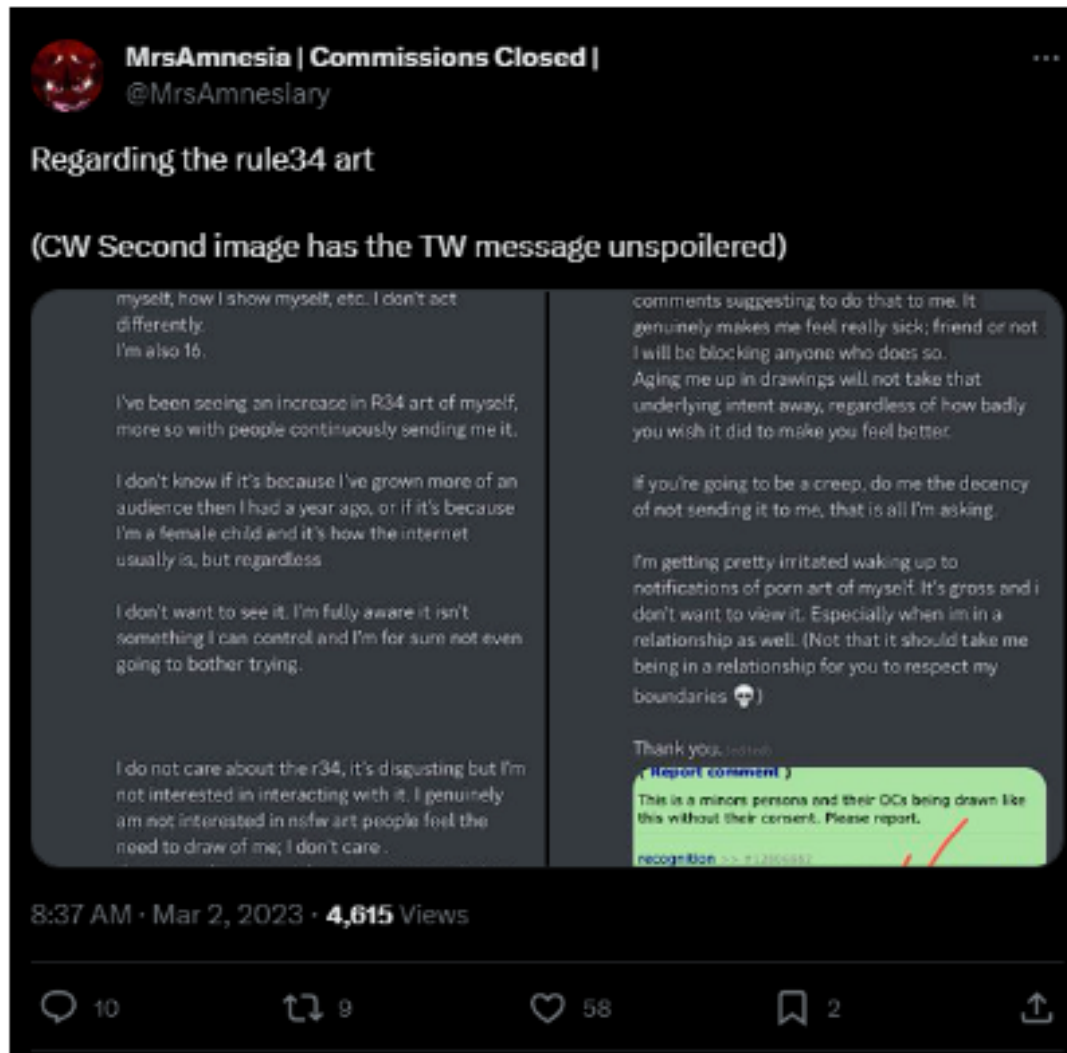

(joking about 5alks' doxx)

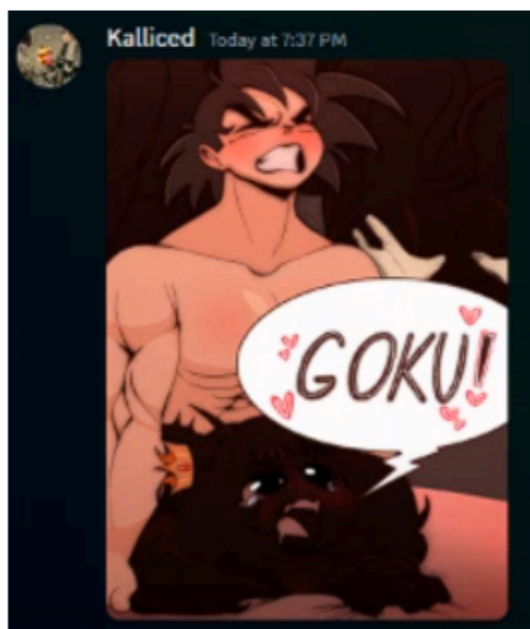

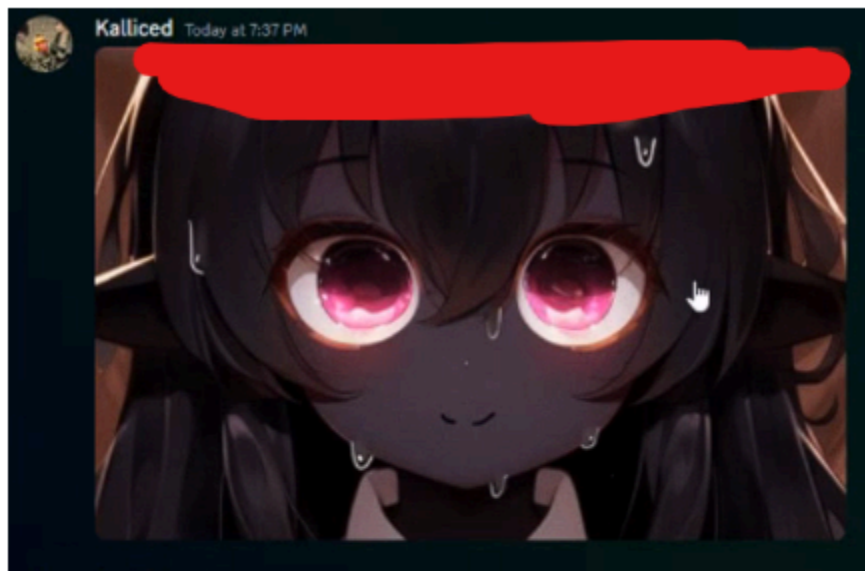

(These are images of the scenery around his area. They're just pictures of nature. Not his house, just nature. If people were given these images without context, they would have no idea what it is, or where it is.)

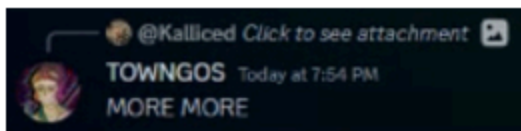

(MrsAmnesiary's statement about the rule 34 art)

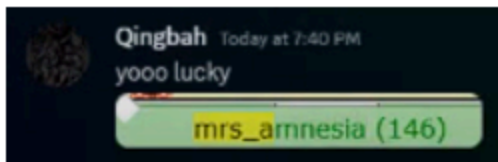

(I am following MrsAmnesiary on twitter, but I never saw this tweet. It's just MrsAmnesiary's statements on the R34 art of her. Which she does not like. I can't argue with that. I wouldn't want NSFW pictures of my roblox avatar on R34 either. That's why I was going to send her the proof of townegos showing the R34, before she blocked me.)

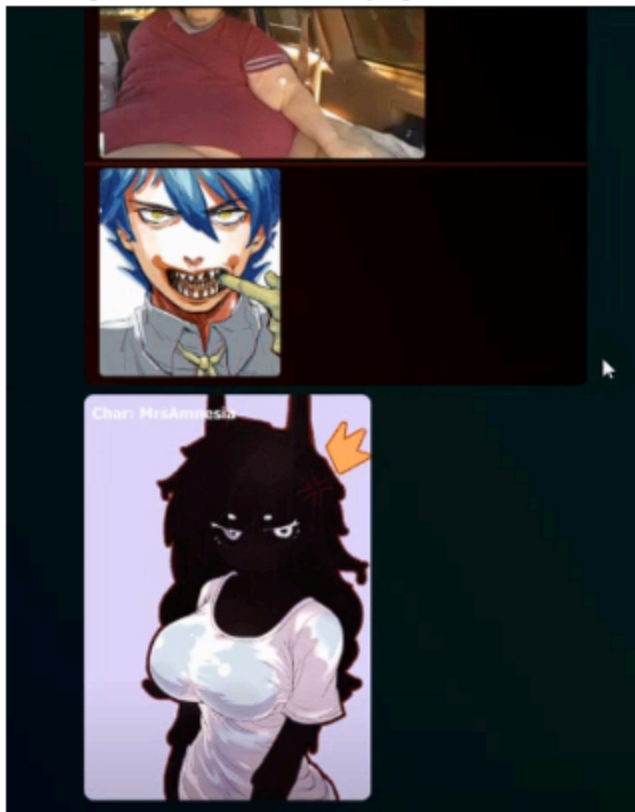

(This is porn Kalliced found of MrsAmnesiary. We kicked him out of the group chat by the way. True, it was after all of this information came to the public.)

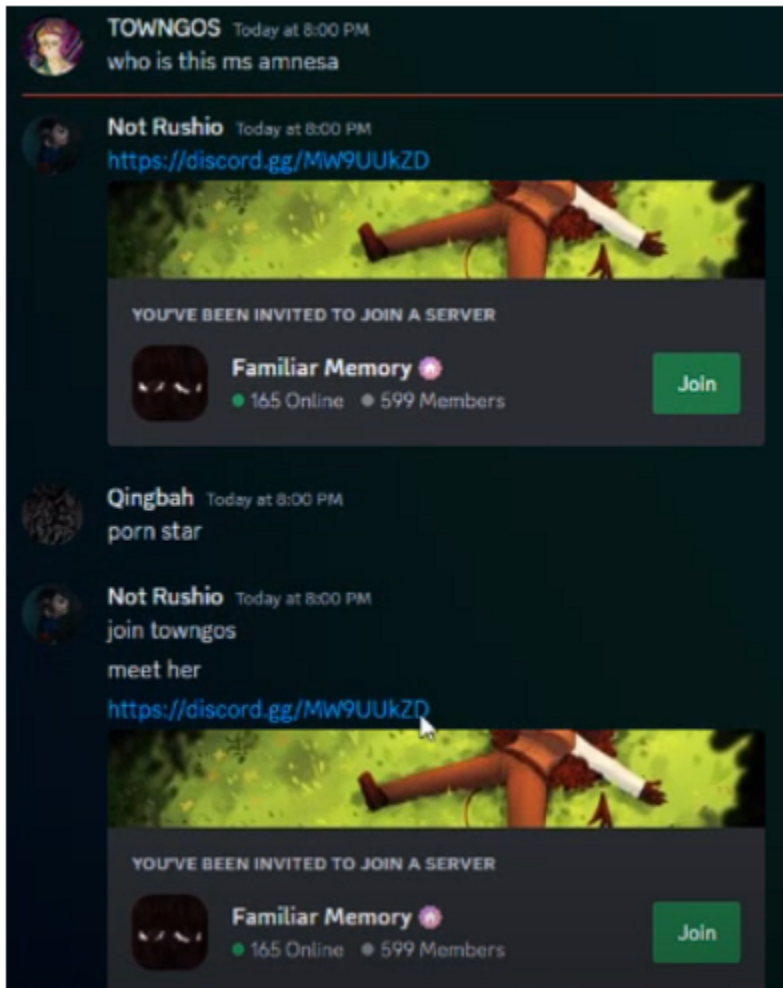

(searching up MrsAmnesiary on a rule 34 website)

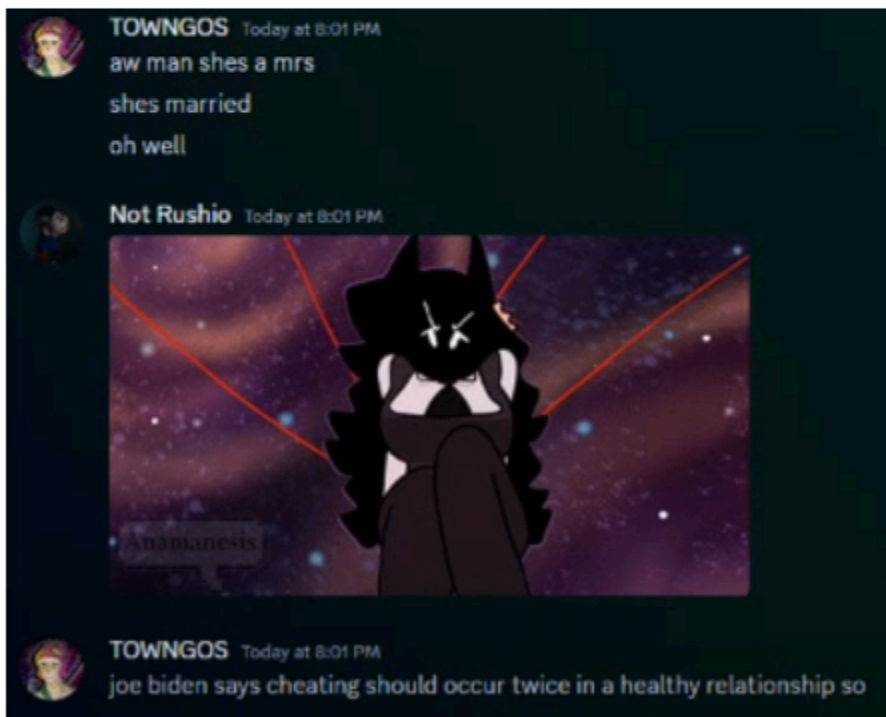

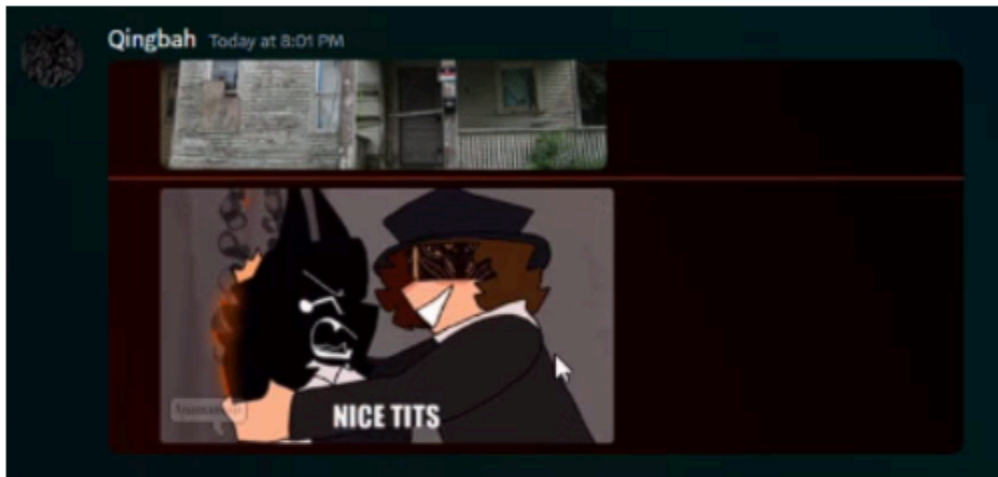

(sending NSFW of MrsAmnesiary again)

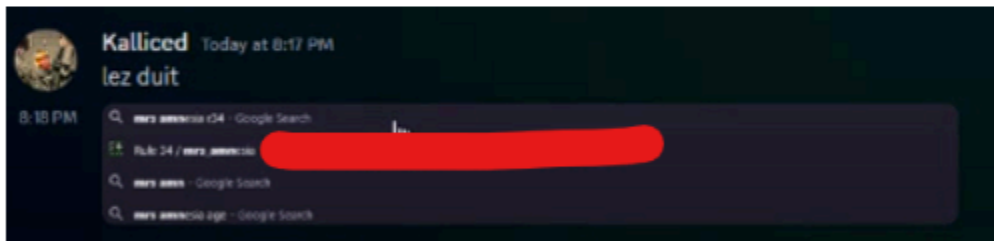

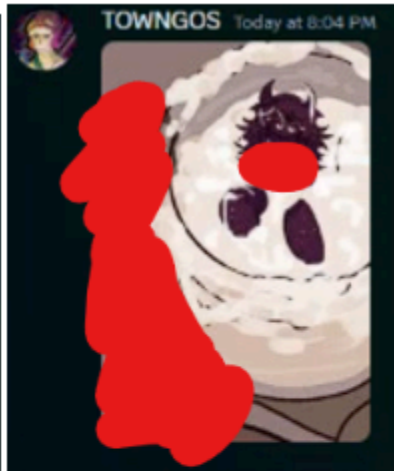

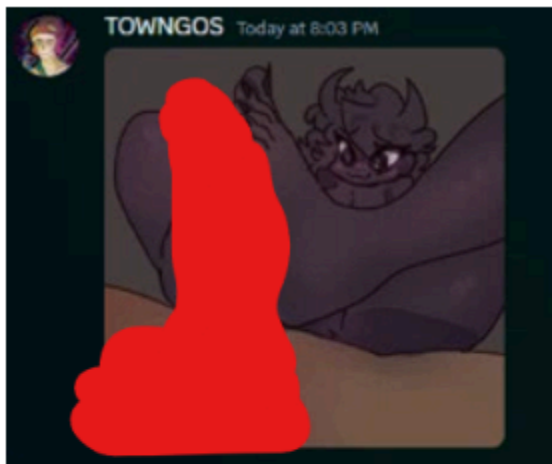

(This is pretty self explanatory. Also, none of this is counted as NSFW. It's just suggestive. But yeah, still weird. Well, at least the bottom image, which is MrsAmnesiary's avatar with shown cleavage.)

(This is me wanting to introduce MrsAmnesiary to Towngos. Since, y'know, both of them are Myths on roblox. Kingheart said "porn star" because he knew there was R34 of her.)

(These are results we found from searching MrsAmnesiary in the discord gifs bar. Those are gifs. The one I sent isn't even an edit. It's just art she made. I think. Don't know why it's there. I said this before, Towngos didn't know her, so I was showing him art she made to him.)

(blocked out is a rule 34 website)

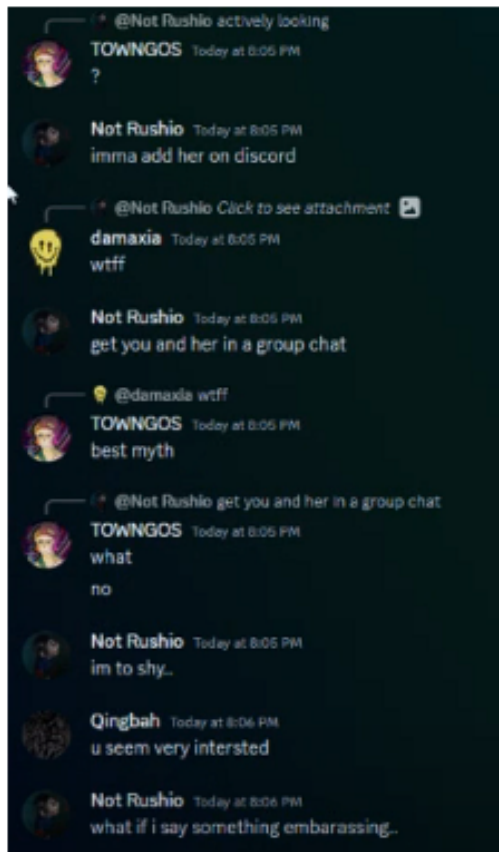

(This is r34 shit. Pretty self explanatory. For context, I was going to show the top 2 to MrsAmnesiary to ban Towngos. He was already trying to verify when he sent the porn in the group chat. The bottom 2 are Kalliced being curious about why there was porn of MrsAmnesiary.)

(I should mention Towngos did not know her age. If you saw some porn, wouldn't you assume the person depicted is of age? Not defending him but, y'know.)

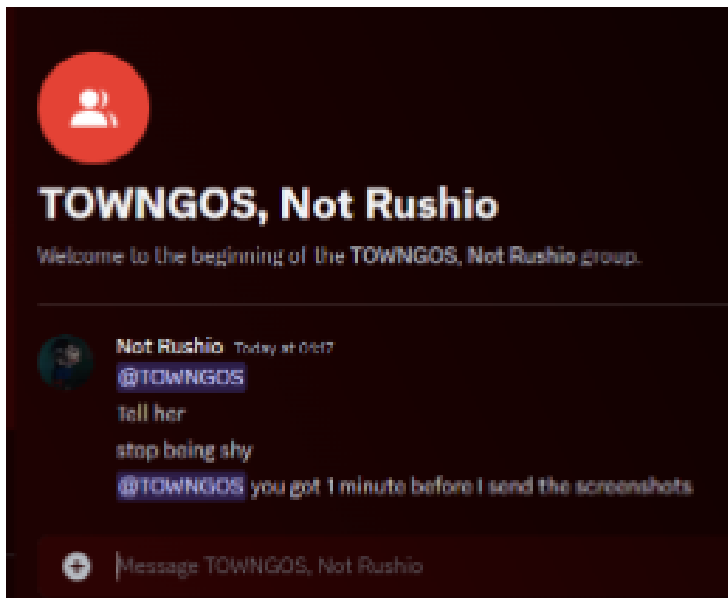

(Also, towngos, kalliced and kingheart were the ONLY ones posting this NSFW stuff. The reason Me, Thinking and Domoxia are pulled into it is because we shared the group chat, I was inviting towngos, and we were on a call. It's like being arrested and charged with the same crimes if you saw your friend murdering someone.)

(talking about adding TOWNGOS and MrsAmnesiary to a group chat because TOWNGOS was actively looking and sending NSFW of her)

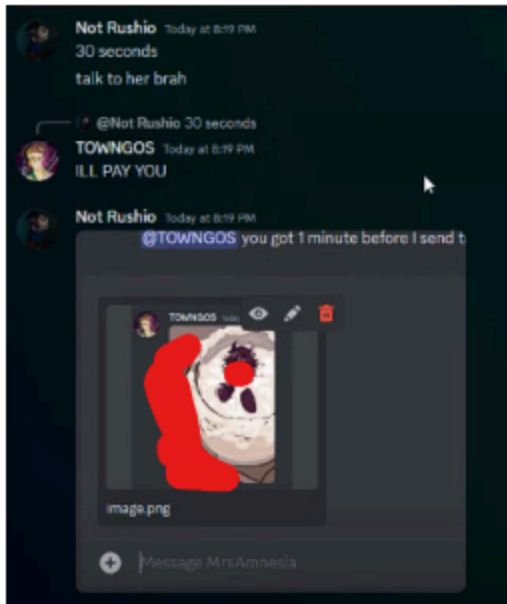

(This explanation is wrong. It was for me to get Towngos and MrsAmnesiary to talk, which was my original goal. That's why I made a group chat with them.)

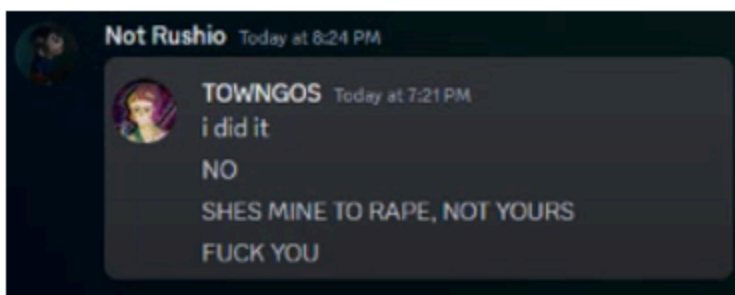

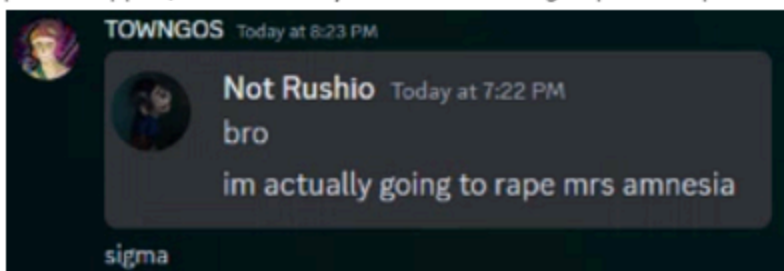

(actually making the gc)

(This is to get them to talk. 2 myths talking. Like I said earlier, the screenshots of the R34 would have been sent regardless.)

(I believe both of the following screenshots or at least the last screenshot was photoshopped, but either way it's a terrible thing to photoshop and it's really weird)

(The top image is me going to send the screenshots, which he didn't want. The image by townegos is something he would have sent, so I would not have sent the screenshots. So, I edited an image of him. Sure it's bad, but we never sent it. And, it was already proven townegos sent R34 in the groupchat. I used "RAPE" because he used rape. Nothing more, nothing less.)

(Again the bottom 2 images are edited.)

(RushioLCO sent MrsAmnesiary's art where KingHeartXI responded with the following)

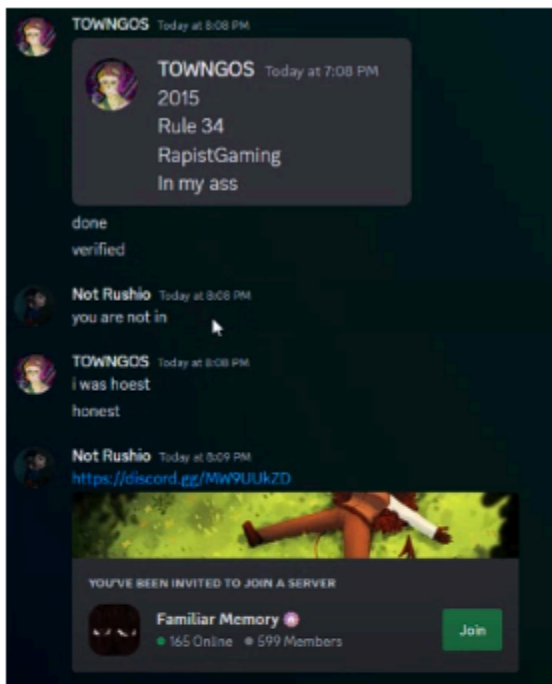

(The intended recipient was Towngos, since I was showing him art MrsAmnesiary made. Kingheart said what he said out of the blue.)

Harassing MrsAmnesiary and her staff:

RushioLCO sent an invite link to MrsAmnesiary's server multiple times in the group chat. I believe he was initially just trying to get TOWNGOS to join the server for whatever reason, but it quickly escalated. After TOWNGOS posted what he sent to one of MrsAmnesiary's staff to get verified in the server and ultimately get access to the rest of the server, other members of the group chat wanted to join in. They began DMing MrsAmnesiary and her staff to attempt to get into the server. TheThinkingRoom specifically mentioned he was going to send MrsAmnesiary's server link to five raiding servers.

(The top half is correct. Only townegos sent NSFW in the group chat. MrsAmnesiary and/or her staff got the screenshots he sent in the group chat from Kalliced. The others (other group chat members) just wanted to join the server since I posted the link in the group chat for Townegos.)

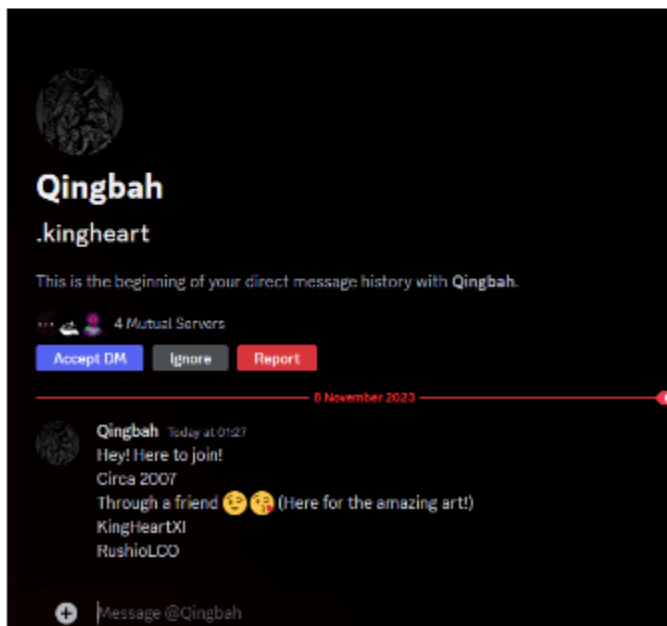

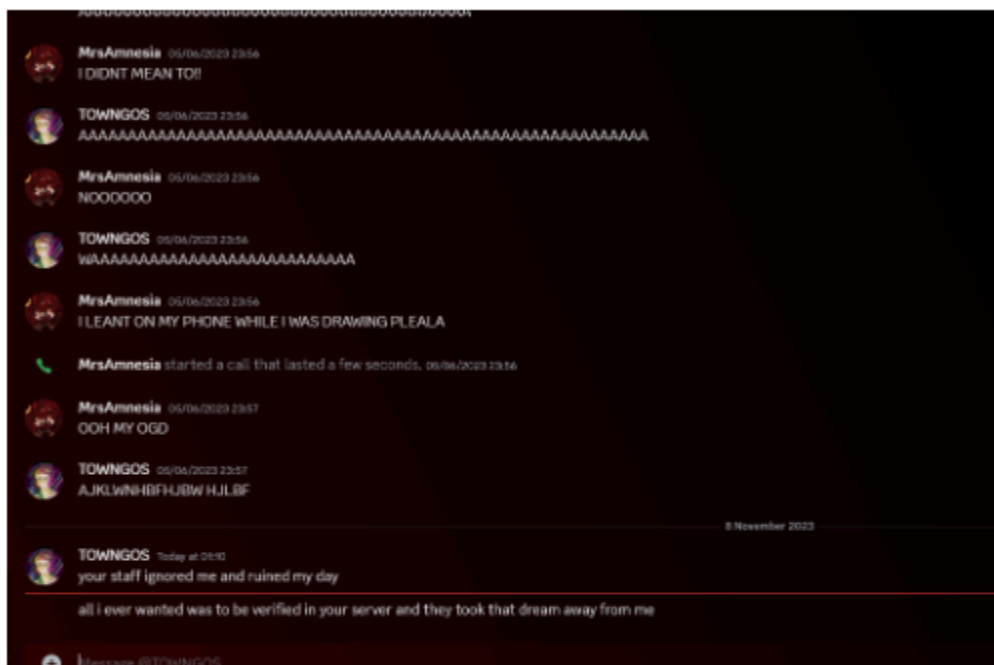

(Thinking mentioned raiding as a joke AFTER the staff members started asking him NSFW questions. He does not know any raiding servers. Wanna know how I know? He told me, plus Deiform has been raided before. Specifically, a burned corpse image being posted multiple times by raiders. Thinking does not wish the same fate for anyone else. Also, Thinking mentioned the raiding to a friend. Not members of MrsAmnesiary's server. Further proving it was a joke.)

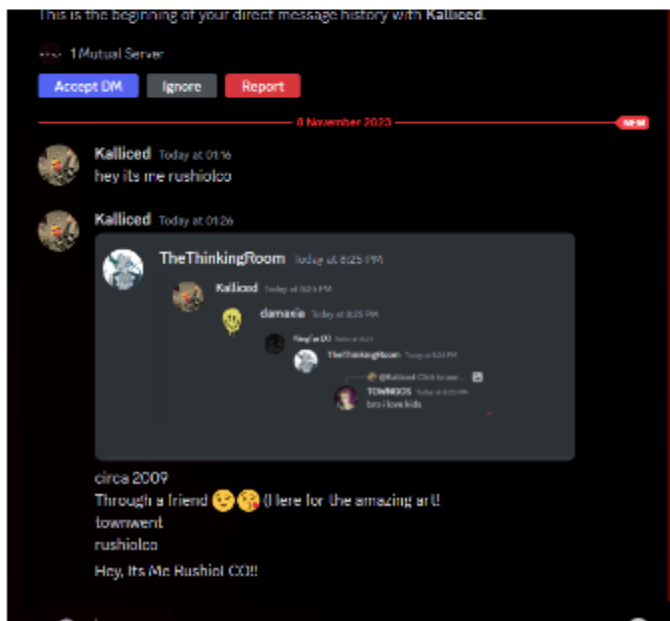

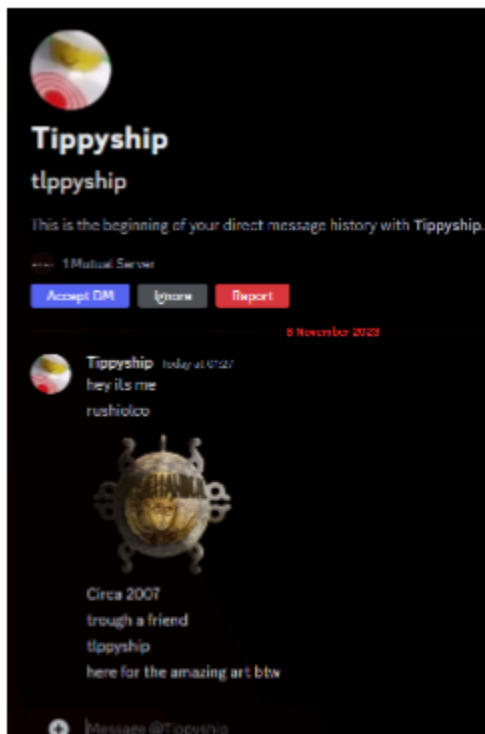

(The top screenshot is towngos's verification messages. The bottom is the JOKE thinking sent to his friend. I already explained it.)

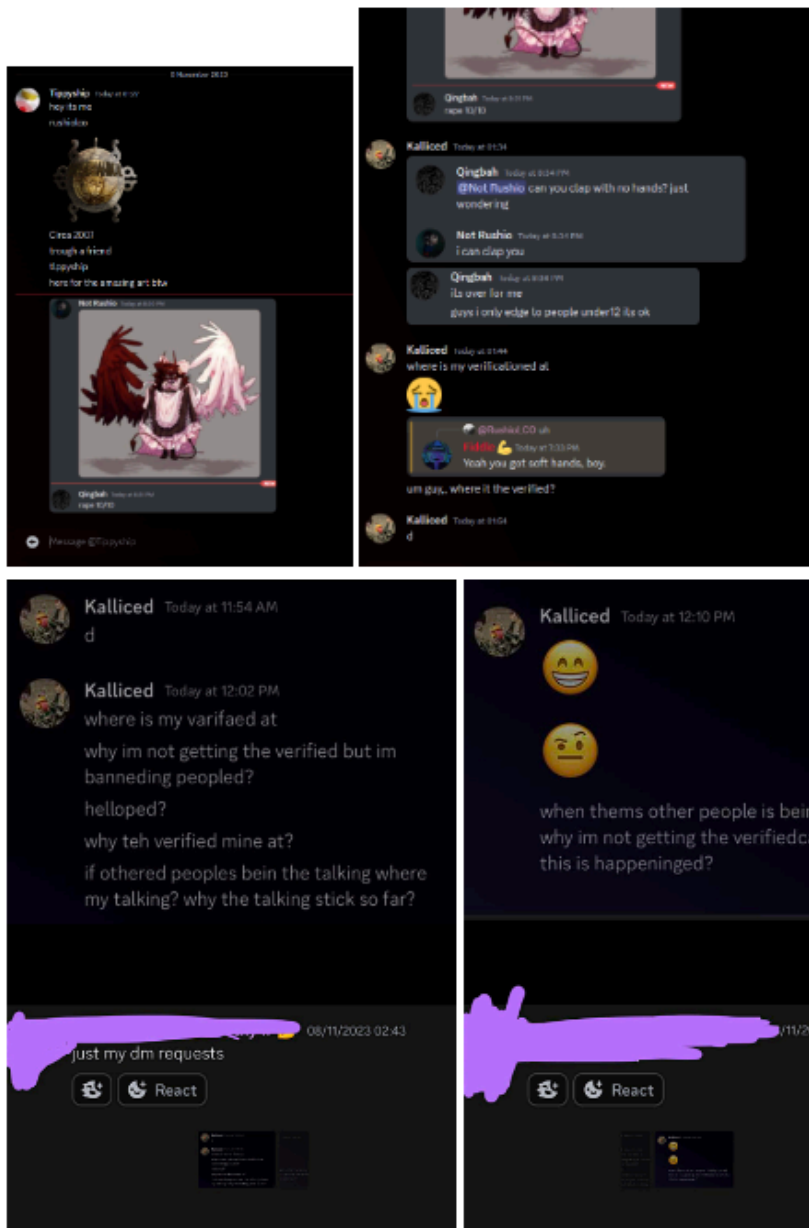

(This is Thinking asking to be verified to join. His message at 2:22 is him asking why MrsAmnesia's servers were berating and insulting him. Keep in mind, Thinking has done nothing.)

(These are just conversations. Pretty self explanatory. The bottom is KingHeart asking to be verified. I WILL MENTION THIS AGAIN. YOU MUST DM A MRSAMNESIARY MODERATOR OR HER TO VERIFY. SO, THEY CAN'T GET MAD AT US FOR THAT.)

(More verification. It was a joke in the group chat to claim it was me dming the staff. I told them to stop doing it.)

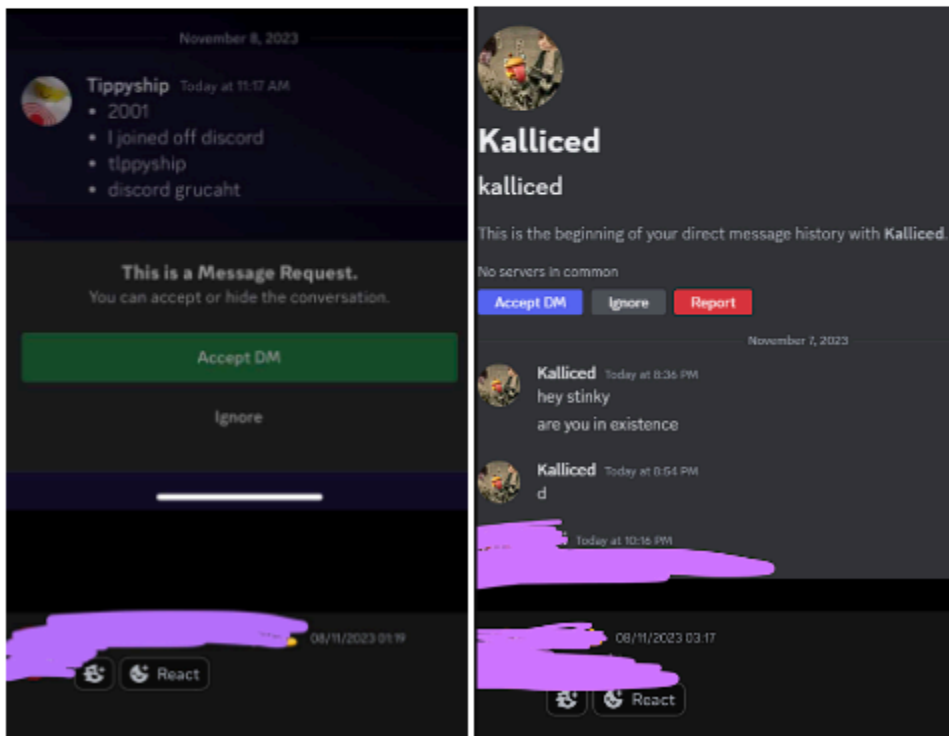

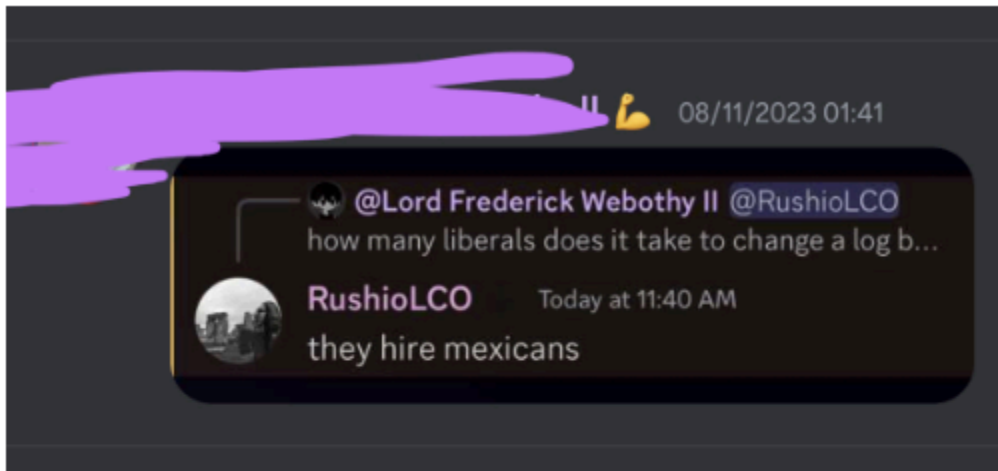

(This is just a collection of Kaliced sending MrsAmnesiary stuff from the group chat. The 2 bottom images are him using terrible grammar, which was a joke.)

(Pretty ridiculous how the rules of MrsAmnesiary's server only apply to members, but not members of the staff team. Fiddlepat is shown telling me I have soft hands, but he wasn't warned. Now he stated on Twitter that it wasn't weird, and it was something the staff said as well. So, that makes him automatically correct, right?)

(More things I assume were sent to MrsAmnesiary. There's no context to these in the document, so I'm not 100% sure. Also, in the bottom image, the staff member asked Towngos to say a slur. Which, he didn't. If you uncover that text, it says nice car. This was to anger the moderator. Although, yes, it looks like he said it. Just more attempts for the moderators trying to gather information on us. Asking people to say slurs was basically AGAINST THE SERVER RULES.)

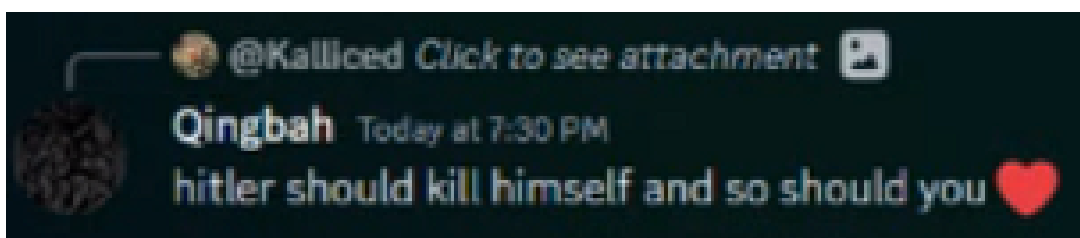

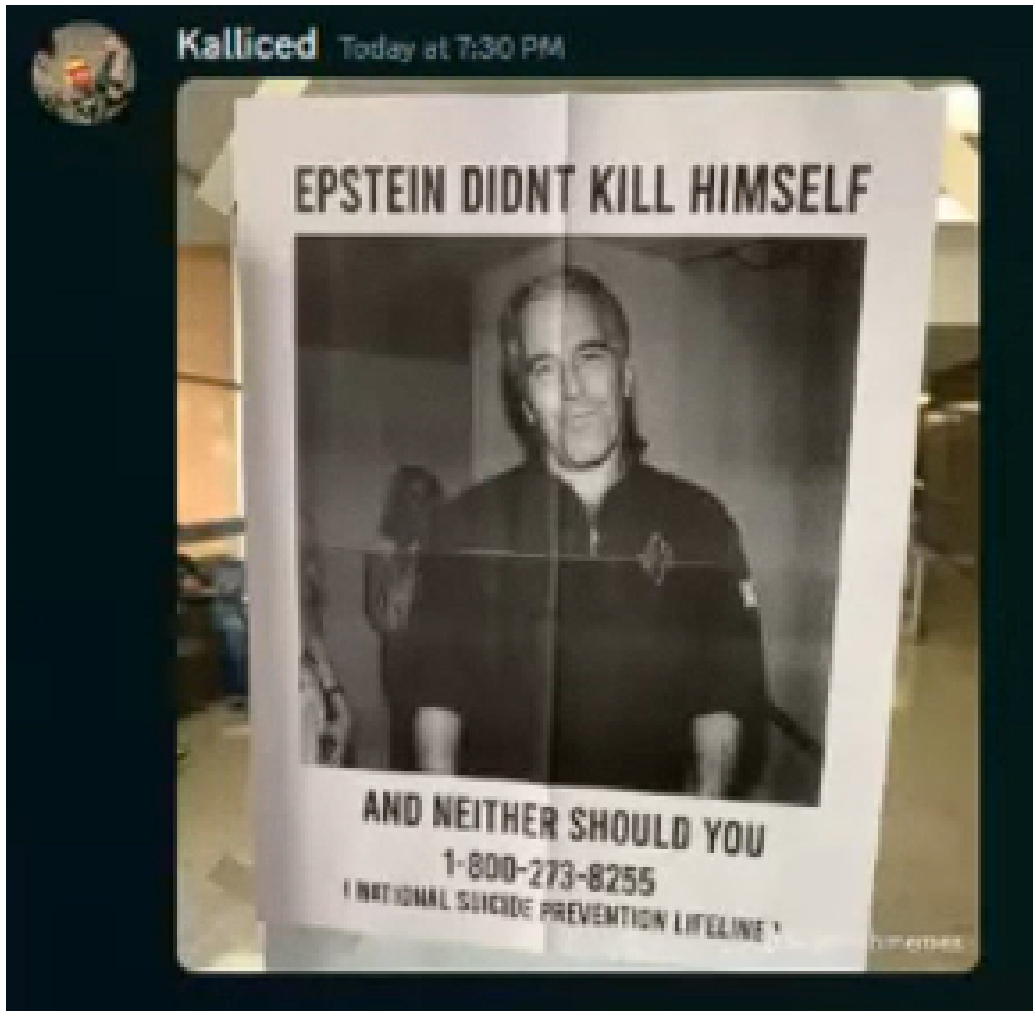

(More stuff sent to MrsAmnesiary. That top image? I was answering the question I replied to. I had seen that joke before, so I said the answer I saw before. Also, it's about liberals. They talk about Mexicans, border security, and jobs all the time. I'm pretty republican 😊)

Throughout my entire time in the group chat, multiple members made multiple racist, insensitive, sexual and just generally weird comments/jokes.

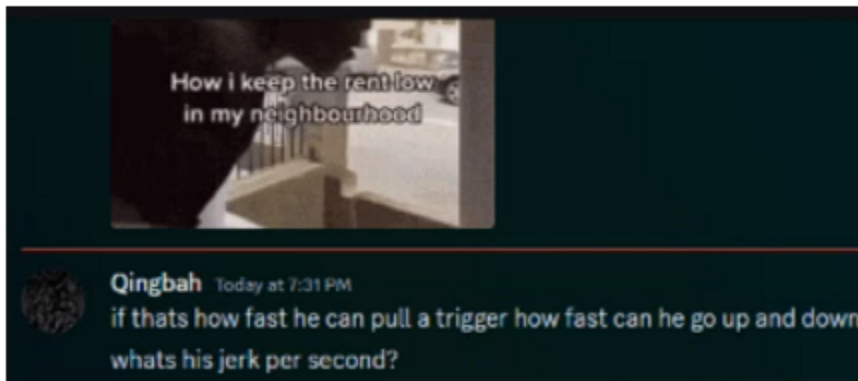

(This is a joke discord server which I left. It basically has an account called Kazdam, in which he makes fun of himself. That's why its called Kazdam's rape dungeon. There are many people in it, such as ASNAGES, RavenBunn, Targaot, Tippyshit, and more.)

(I said "me" then a picture of a square, because I assumed what KingHeart said was relating to Kazdam's Rape Dungeon. Hard to believe, but I support a server that makes fun of a bad person.)

(Epstein stuff. You have eyes, you can read. Pretty bad stuff sent by them.)

(referring to a GIF that showed someone shooting a gun with the text "How i keep the rent low in my neighbourhood")

(The gif which I posted is a guy firing a gun out of a window with that text below. So, yeah. KingHeart responded with that. I can't even come up with excuses for him anymore. The stuff he said and has said are ridiculous.)

(KingHeart discussing Israel, Palestine, Iran, and mexicans.)

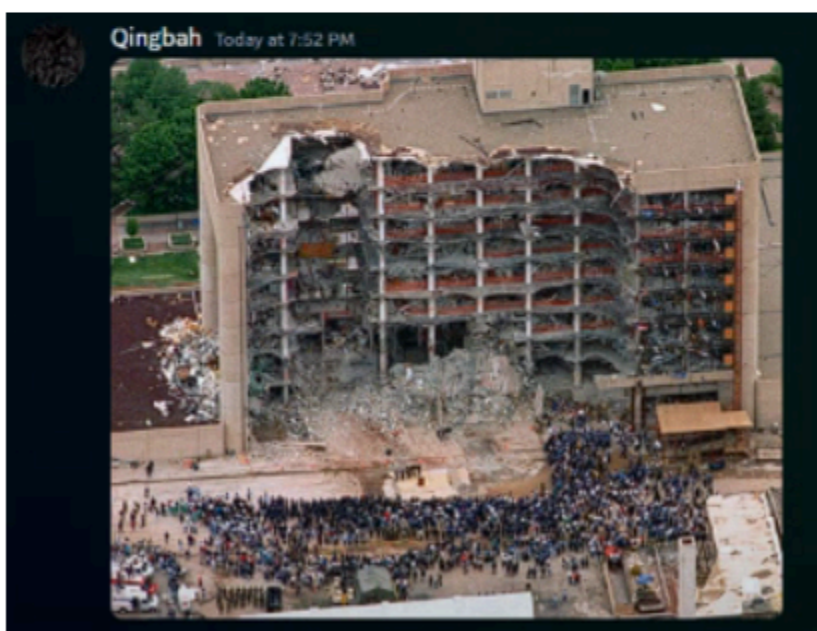

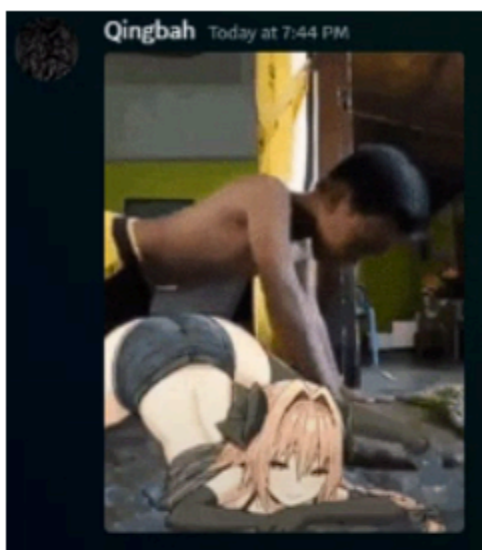

(Kalliced/Borger sending a picture of a burger with boobs. WE ARE TEENAGERS FOR THE LOVE OF GOD. It's a joke. Also, I didn't expect Kalliced to actually send the full image. So, in the call, WHICH YOU MODERATORS HAVE ACCESS TO, I say something along the lines of "too much information".)

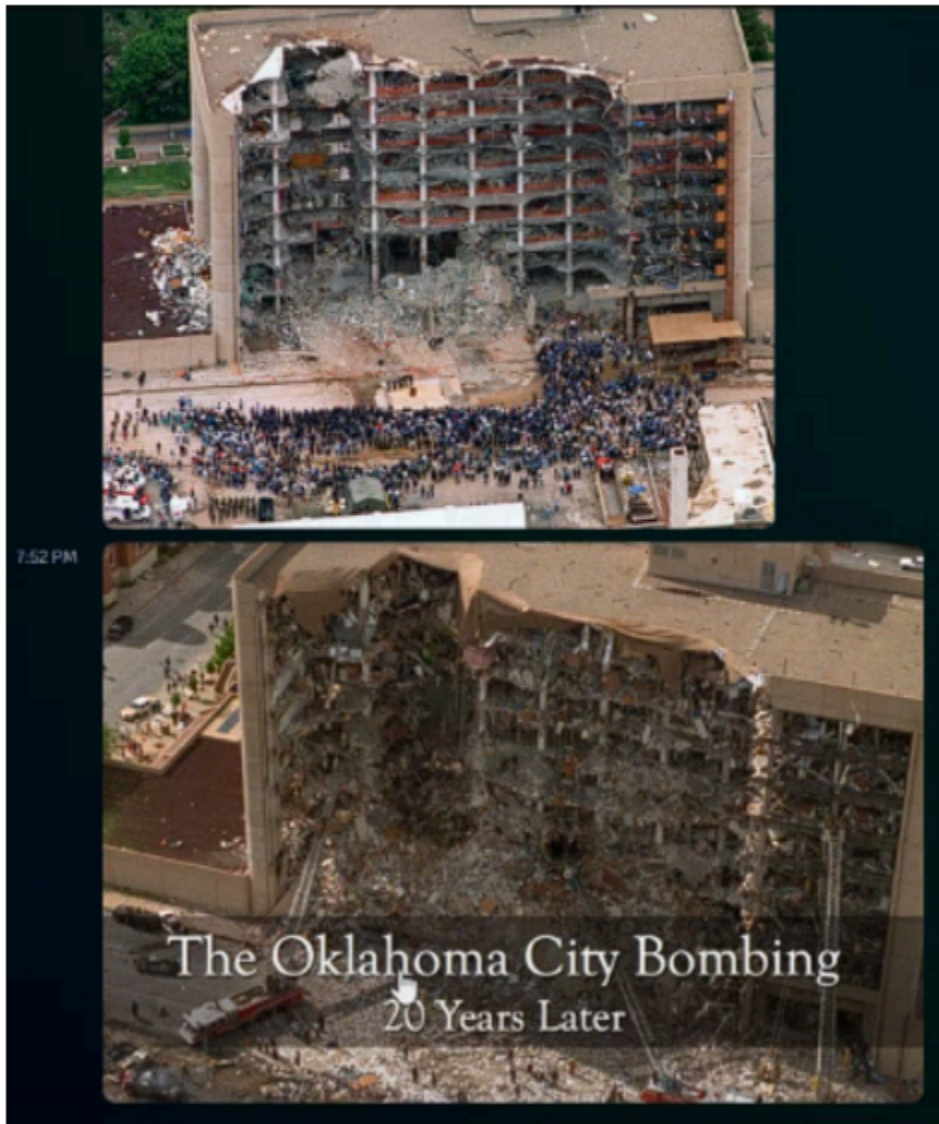

(KingHeart being KingHeart. More boob stuff. Haha.)

(It's just more jokes and/or inappropriate gifs. The gif I posted I searched on discord gifs "speech bubble".)

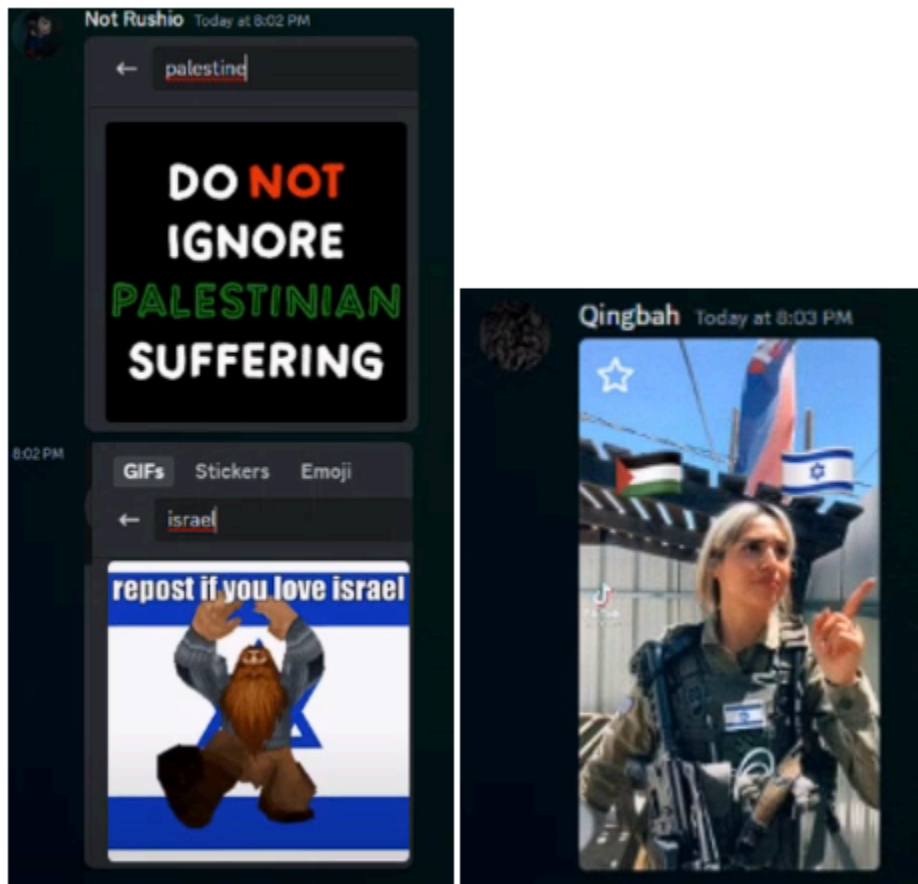

(This is where I draw the line. Specifically, the bottom image. I will clarify, that is an image of a building in Oklahoma that got bombed. I sent it, KingHeart reposted it. I will provide context with the next images.)

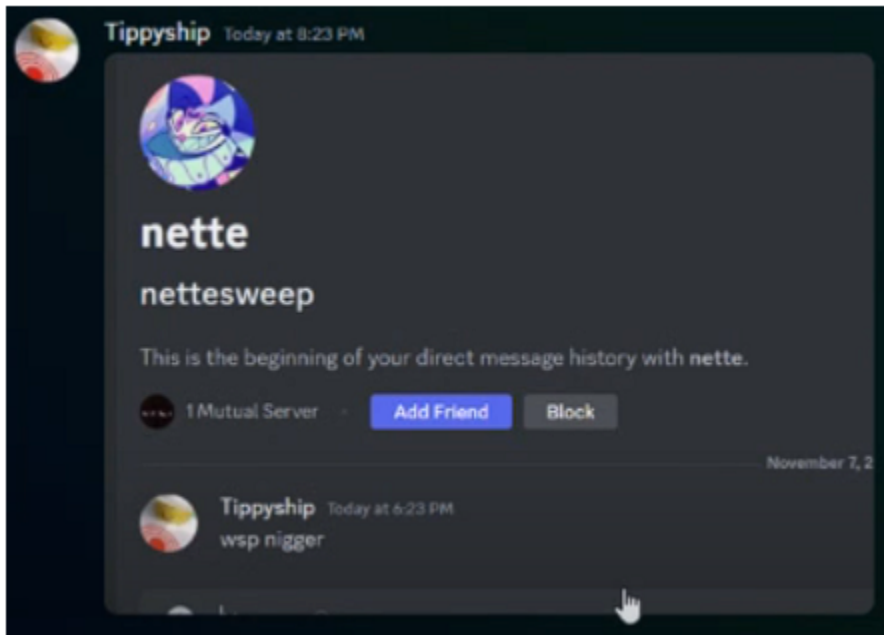

(joking about the palestine situation)

(I posted those images. I should mention, I have family with jewish roots. I'm not gonna go on to how I feel about the israeli vs hamas war. You can DM me that. The images shown are NOT a joke about palestine. It is referencing the actual Oklahoma City Bombing. Look it up. Regardless, it's just like the 9/11 comments. We are joking about the United States tragedies. It's dark humor. I assume he got the Palestine part from the fact I had an Israeli flag in my bio for a couple days. Also, notice the text "20 Years Later". It's remembering the tragedy. That's also why I posted it.)

(This is one of the many examples where something was made up to make me and others look bad. When you guys are given information, find the context. It's important.)

(This has nothing to do with the war. It's simply me showing what happens when you search Palestine, and what happens when you search Israel in the discord search bar. KingHeart posted a gif he saw. In no way was I calling out either side.)

(I assume this is Tippyship to a moderator in MrsAmnesiary's server. Tippyship was in the group chat for no less than 20 minutes. He also never joined the call. I had no clue this image was even posted, since I was playing Postal 4. Terrible language.)

(This is just KingHeart and townegos saying dumb shit.)

(I will mention, the screenshot thinking sent shows what one of MrsAmnesiary's moderators asked Thinking. Super inappropriate guys.)

This is information gathered outside the document.

(Here is MrsAmnesiary and sinsorr trying to not elaborate on our bans. Proving the fact that they wanted us to have 0 voice in this situation. They did not want us to have the chance to explain.)

RANTING MY ASS OFF

(THE NEXT SECTIONS WILL BE VERY BIAS)

First off, the fact that Me and Thinking were banned for this is unbelievable. Thinking did absolutely nothing, and I only did several things, which I will re-explain (Since, I'm the one making this document.) All the 9/11 and Oklahoma City bombing stuff is just dark humor. I mentioned the Oklahoma City Bombing images since it said anniversary on the pictures. I don't know the actual date. I said the 9/11 shit because it's related to 5alks. Specifically, planes. And I was responding to KingHeart.

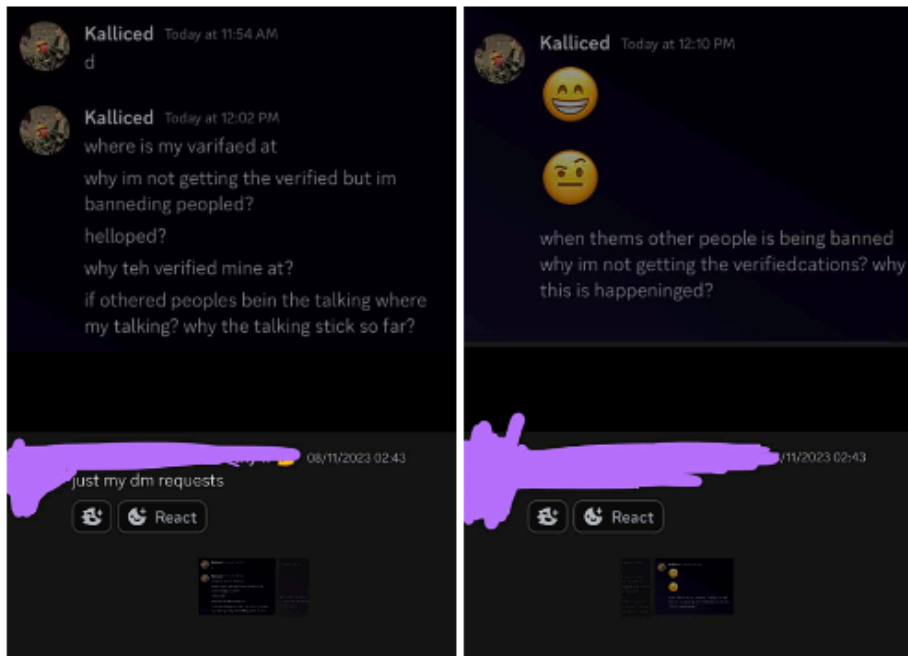

You could say I started the drama with Towngos and MrsAmnesiary. But I never intended it to go the way it did. I simply invited Towngos to MrsAmnesiary's server because they were/are both myths. That's also why I wanted to make them talk.

I said this earlier, but I was also going to share the R34 towngos posted to MrsAmnesiary. Why? I invited him. It's my moral right to share it, since I invited him. Why would I want MrsAmnesiary to not know about a R34 poster I invited?

I should also mention that Towngos and KingHeart, who I have known for around a year, have never (this is coming from what i've seen) done anything like this. The reason I stayed in the group chat? I was talking to people like TheThinkingRoom. Also, I was playing "Postal 4: No Regerts". So, I wasn't even tabbed in for about ¼ of it. I also stayed in because I was wrongfully accused, and some accusations were wrong. I was angry. I was ranting in the group chat. I'm a very angry guy. I needed people I could rant to.

I'll also add this. I said this in the beginning. Thinking and I are being canceled for the exact same reasons as towngos and kingheart, yet we didn't do them. We were simply in the group chat. Yes, you could believe we could have stopped it. How? Not sure. I could said multiple times to stop. Oh wait, I did. I requested for MrsAmnesiary to not get involved, but I was indeed going to send her the R34 screenshots.

There is something I'd like to say about involvement. After we were banned, my opinion of MrsAmnesiary shifted. So, on call (people with access to the full call) can hear me telling Borger what to send to MrsAmnesiary. Shown below.

(I told Borger to say about ¼ of this. It was funny since it had terrible grammar. I wanted to get back at her for wrongfully banning me. Yes, I was petty.)

Last thing I should mention. Towards the end, the group chat turned into a joke to get towngos to talk to mrsamnesiary. He did not know her age, nor did anyone else.

RMH'S RIDICULOUS PRESENTATION

Want to know something ridiculous? How all of this was shown. When confronting RMH moderators about all of this information, here's how it went.

1. The moderators refused to show US information on what we did, which in return did not allow us to explain. That's why I am creating this document.
2. The moderator who banned us did not let us explain. Not at all. I said this earlier, but he denied my request. He also apparently told other servers the information, like the Cult Family and smiles family. Again, without the proper context and truth, he spreaded over exaggerated information and lies. (I was told that we were not given information in case we were to go after sinsorr. That makes sense.)

3. All of this information was given to the public at the same time we received it. At no point were we allowed to refute the claims until now.

4. It took several days for the moderator going over my case to receive information from his moderators. That's right folks. The RMH moderators do not talk effectively to each other. Sure, there could have been an excuse like recklesshavok (the mod who banned us) was dealing with family issues. In that case, I understand.

Spelunker 11/08/2023 3:54 PM

I was in contact with a POM overseer but they weren't the one who banned you all

Though the same problem as I have seems to be going on there that the overseer in question hasn't provided a reason as of yet so I'll assume we're all waiting on one person to provide whatever they have to

5. I've already said this. The racism was false. Also, we were all given the same ban reason, even though none of us did the exact same thing.
6. As far as I know, MrsAmnesiary and her staff have not received any punishment for their messages with thinking. How are RMH and MrsAmnesiary connected? Less than 10 minutes after MrsAmnesiary blocked me, I was banned from RMH. The 2 servers clearly communicated information. Which, makes sense. I can see how I would have been banned from RMH. If it seemed like we were raiding, they'd ban us. Makes sense.
7. The RMH mods allowed the document of sinsorr to be publicly shown WITH false information. Goes to show they just wanted us gone.
8. We have been banned from many servers. Again, RMH is using its threshold to reach out to other groups and get us banned for incorrect information.

That's just some of the things RMH has done that completely eludes me. They use their iron curtain. If you joke about 5alks, immediate ban. They hate talking bad about his pedophile. It's also funny how I had to go out of my way to make an ALT account to join RMH to contact a moderator. Why? There's no easy to access list. So basically, to appeal, you have to ban evade. They keep their Myth Committee account private so nobody knows who's defending the known pedophile, 5alks.

In short, RMH mods do not know how to get accurate information. They don't verify their sources. They get their information from biased sources. Then, get angry if you call them out on it. And, get angry if you talk trash about 5alks.

Through more information, I'm being told I am seen as not as accountable, and that I am not being banned solely for the actions of others. So, thank you RMH. I'm glad my actions are why I was banned, and not others actions.

LINKS AND MORE INFORMATION

If you want to know more about 5alks, here's a document all about him.
I will say, it is very biased and not civil.

APOLOGIES FROM GROUP CHAT MEMBERS

“Revised cause this is stupid”

-RushioLCO

Dear Myth Community, I would like to begin by apologizing to Mrs. Amnesia for my actions, including the posting of the rule 34 art in the group chat. After some time of reflection, I have realized my wrongdoing, and am truly sorry. To everyone else in the community I have offended, I am deeply sorry, and I constantly working on myself as I grow and mature. Teenagers make mistakes sometimes, and this was one of those times. I would also like to say that I think the myth community has gone softer than 5al's overweight stomach. If you make some jokes in a group chat, even if it's obvious you are joking, and are not mentioning them anywhere but to a small group of friends, you are still instantly exiled from the community, which is disappointing to say the least. Something else is that people in the community are using their power to make literal proven pedophiles (such as 5al) seem like good people by shifting the blame onto others. Thank you all for understanding, and once again, sorry to those I have offended, especially Mrs. Amnesia.

Sincerely, The one, the only, the incredible, TOWNGOS

Dear myth community, For you know me as jpedia originally, people were upset with me for screaming the n word two summers ago but I have changed since then and havent said it since, additionally there was a situation where I was accused for distributing child porn, however within the images the minor was not presented nude, therefore it was not at all child porn, I am also a minor. I apologize for the inconvenience i may have caused Finally, i have nothing to do w this gc LOLLLL XDDD

Dear Myth Community, The myth community, Been in it sense 2017-2023 I have done many bad things I havent made any apologies on them so for once I will make an apology for the things I have really done not things I have been accused of and they are false. 1st of all I would like to apologies for the doxxing i have been doing this for the fame and the fear to put into the myth community for my own profit I have hurt many people and made them feel scared and have actually done real harm to them and their family and on this I would like to apologise to Bczj, Nethars, Eax, Choochers and Mr_Venusflytrap if I could I would take them down but due to doxbins policy I cannot and I apologise heavily for making those permanent I do wish though that I could apologies to the ones I do not have contact with privality as I have apologized to eax and bczj not too long ago and we have became friends overtime. 2nd of all the racism I would like to state the thing I said with video proof of me saying "Ching chong ching chong" was just me reading out what falware/5al said meaning I did not mean this by my own words it was just me saying whatever he said because I have a bad habit of reading things out loud which many of my friends who I have talked to through voice can vouch/confirm and another thing I am only racist to my own race I know that isnt much of an excuse but it is something id like to say (I am a brazilian-american and was born in brazil and moved to the USA at a very young age) 3rd thing I have done stealing accounts and that bullshit well all I really have to say I am sorry for this aswell once again only did this for the fame and my own self gain if I can I will send all the accounts back to the original owners if I cannot I will not use those accounts or just give them off to somebody I know a thing I do want to add on though I was not associated with the harassment of Amnesia I was only a spectator and did not send any porn of amnesia to the gc or Amn themself

Dear Myth Community, I would like to apologize to anyone affected such as MrsAmnesia, I do not condone the harassment of them even despite their harassment of me in the server. I apologize for anything I've done that has offended or harmed someone as most, if not all of the time I would have been wholly unaware, we're sorry, myth community.

From, TheThinkingRoom.

Hello, Yes, I am kingheart, and I want you all to know I take absolute full responsibility for everything I have said. I also give the dearest of apologize for all of this unnecessary drama which had taken place in our group chat. Regarding my acts about NSFW: All I had sent relating to NSFW in the group chat was nothing related to MrsAmnesia in any way, and any of the NSFW I had not made any of the group member uncomfortable, or any sort of thing, because they were laughing at it. Regarding the "racism": Yes. I am a teenager, I made a joke about how "Americans flex water in their monuments on Africans" which was very clearly, not serious. When bringing up the acts of Palestine: I have and will not make fun of Palestine, I have civilian family who have died in middle eastern conflicts. I have not and will not discriminate against either of these two groups of people. Making fun of tragedies: Yes. I made a joke about 9/11. But really? Be honest, I think many, many people have made jokes about 9/11, or heard one about it, and hadn't gotten offended. The Oklahoma city disaster, I had no idea this was a thing. It had came up and rushio told me about it. All I had sent was a picture from the F.B.I, which I had made fun of, because it was an image of the disaster captioned "20 years later" and the photo of the building was the same as after the attacks. Which I found funny. To the sexual remarks: I am 15. I am a teenager, of course I'll make jokes about sex and inappropriate things, and I realized that these messages were harmful, but once again I have no intent of going to attack MrsAmnesia, and had no idea the messages would get to her. "SEND PORN TO MINORS" Is a joke. Everyone in the groupchat were minors. "Myth orgy" and "be there or be edging" Its a joke. Once again. No one was meant to be harmed by these remarks. "Edge to people under 12" I have never done this. This is a joke. Political remarks: "Bomb Iran" "Abolish israel and palestine and give it to the netherlands" "keep the mexicans out" Its a joke. I have nothing against any people. "Death to america we should bomb the capital" I don't like the US, , also a joke. Why did I say these things? People laughed from it in VC, I like making people laugh. Got a little carried away, wasn't thinking, in the heat of people screaming, saying random bullshit, doing random bullshit. Ect... As rushio has said, he has known me for a year, and many other people have too, this is the only "controversial" things I have done.

Other apologies will come forth soon. I will edit this document when they come out. However I want to get this document out quickly. Thank you for taking the time to read about the truth.

Thinking and I see this as a situation that has been blown out of proportion. While some things are true, others aren't. But that doesn't excuse their actions. They will be met with the proper punishment.

I would like to be unbanned from servers such as but not limited to RMH. Same with Thinking. Sure, it's unlikely.
